Miss Norma Elaine Henning Marries George Blake Ritchie

Miss Norma Elaine Henning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. S. R. Henning of Harris Hill road, Trucksville, became the bride of George Blake Ritchie, son of Mrs. Alice Blake Ritchie of Gore street, Wilkes-Barre, in St. Dominick Church, Wilkes-Barre, Saturday morning at 11 o'clock. Father Charles Carroll performed the double ring ceremony.

Bridesmaids were Miss Doris Henning, sister of the bride, and Miss Nancy Flynn, cousin of the bridegroom. Best man was Donald McLaughlin, of Flushing, N.Y., a former classmate of the bridegroom, and John Clifford, Boston, and Carl Henning, brother of the bride, were ushers.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore white satin gown designed with tight bodice and full skirt, peter pan collar of seed pearls and long tight sleeves. Her finger tip veil fell from a coronet and she carried a shower bouquet of white gardenias and red pinocchio roses.

Attendants chose white organdy bolero dresses with traces of red and organdy bonnets. They carried white sweet peas and red pinocchio roses.

Mrs. Henning selected cocoa crepe and lace with egg shell accessories and shoulder bouquet of sweetheart roses, and Mrs. Ritchie, navy crepe with matching accessories and gardenias.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at Brokenshire's Hotel and the couple left for a trip to Canada.

Mrs. Ritchie was graduated from Kingston Township High School and East Stroudsburg State Teacher's College. During World War 2 she served as first lieutenant with the Army Medical Corps. She is presently employed as therapist with Dr. George Wagner in Haverford.

Mr. Ritchie was graduated from Coughlin High School and Haverford College. He served with the Army Air Corps during the War. This past year he completed his first year in law at Dickinson University.

The couple will reside in Manoa, Pa.

A number of parties honoring the couple were given in Philadelphia and Haverford. June 10 Miss Ellen Ritchie, aunt of the bridegroom entertained at a dinner party at her home on North Main street. Night of rehearsal Mrs. Alice Blake Ritchie was hostess to members of the wedding party at a dinner party.
