Rare Pieces In Antique Stock

Mustache Cup For Man With Moustache

Items already rounded up by the Antique Committee of the Library Auction include a rare picture painted on glass in a gold-leaf frame, a love seat, a good selection of antique colored glass, and a moustache cup, towel rack, flax wheel, child's high-chair, some majolica pieces. And for horse-lovers, in anticipation of the Easter Parade, a genuine surrey with the fringe on top.

There is also a set of half-back chairs, six of them, beautifully decorated, suitable for either a classic or a ranch-house setting.

Each member of the antique committee is responsible for donation of one treasured antique, and for five others dredged up from friends or neighbors. There are twenty-two members of the antique committee. 22 x 5 equals 110 antiques as a back-log for the auction, in addition to all donations.

Mrs. Fred B. Howell, Mrs. D. A. Hutchison, and Mrs. Howard Risley are co-chairmen of antiques. Members are: Mesdames H. W. Smith, A. J. Rutherford, Murray Scureman, R. M. Scott, T. M. B. Hicks, George Schallenberger, William Lamb, George Gregson, John Doane, Norwood Brader, H. R. Weaver, Ray Shiber, J. C. Langdon, Paul Gross, John Ferguson, J. A. Brooks, Dwight Fisher, Miss Mary Gates, Miss Miriam Lathrop, librarian.

Thirty Children Attend Classes

St. Paul's School Closes June 25
