

Beaumont

Shall we see you at Old Home Day wearing a Booster Tag? For a good time the fourth, see the "Little League" play Turrell's Tunkhannock team in the morning, have lunch on the school grounds where hot dogs, beans, ice cream, potato chips, home-made pies, etc. will be for sale, then see the "town team" play Shavertown in the afternoon. Perhaps you may wish to play Bingo while the youngsters have a pony ride or compete in some athletic event. A Community Committee consisting of the Oddfellows (whose project this is) and the Lend-A-Hand Women's Club wish to make the Honor Roll a permanent bronze tablet. Show them you care and be there the Fourth!

The Vernon team bowed to Beaumont this past weekend by a score of 9-2 while the Nicholson team took our "Little League" 3-1.

Are you interested in the New York Herald Tribune Project of placing slum New York City youngsters in the country for a two week's vacation? If you are, contact Mrs. William Arch Austin, Mrs. Edward Lewis and Mrs. Jack Smith have already placed their names on the list for they wish to help "less fortunate children" and thereby enrich their own boys' lives.

Russell Denmon surely is the proud papa these days, for number three is a girl, Sandra!

Mrs. Arno Smith is a surgical patient at the General Hospital. The Canadian campers returned with their quota of fish and sunburn.

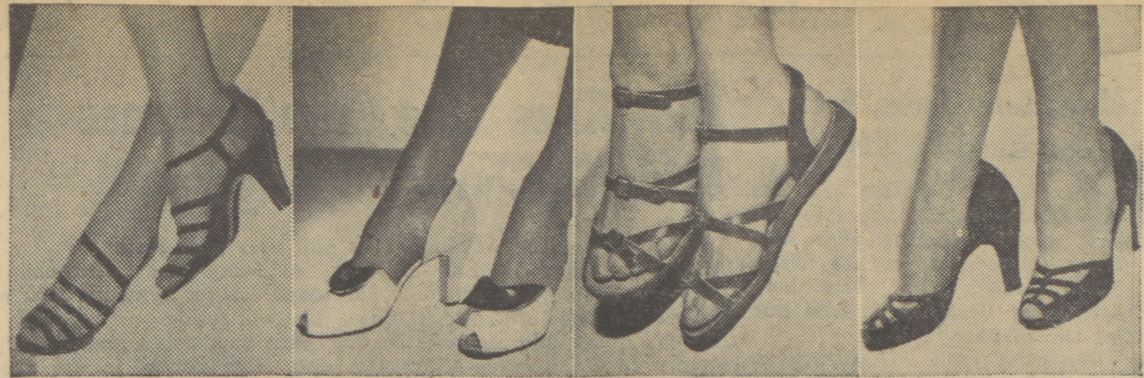

Connie Dennis of New Jersey is spending sometime with her grandparents, the Edward Condons.

Mrs. B. F. Williams of Edwardsville spent the week with her daughter, Mrs. W. Arch Austin, while Arch had the high school boys fishing in Canada.

There is a worthwhile group of juvenile books which will make excellent summer reading if you call for them at Kozak's.

Quartet Of Styles For A Twinkle-Toed Summer

Here are eight steps to a stylish "understanding" that will keep you well-shod around the clock all spring and summer-long. Left to right, from the fashion pages of Cosmopolitan magazine, are: high-strapped, patent sandals, Dior-designed and I. Miller-made for $24.95; suede-fitted, white pumps by Rhythm Step at $12.95; Fortmet's red leather beach sandals that are easy on feet, eyes and purse at $6.95; and a pair of shantung pumps, made in several colors by Paradise to sell for less than $13.

in the county! In the last ten years Tunkhannock gained fifty two persons while we gained one hundred and forty-nine! Don't forget—Russ Denmon's Sandra makes the gain one hundred fifty now!

Ruth Underwood, and Mrs. Raymond Garinger are in charge.

Helen Ann Scureman Marries Harry W. Reed

Miss Helen Ann Scureman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Scureman of Carverton, became the bride of Harry Wilson Reed, son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Reed of Kingston Saturday, June 17 at 3 o'clock in Wyoming Presbyterian Church. Rev. Kenneth Parsons performed the double ring ceremony.

Charles Button presided at the organ and Mrs. Henry MacQueen of West Pitston, aunt of the bride, was vocalist.

Matron of honor was Mrs. Glenn Bitler of Philadelphia and bridesmaids, Miss Cay Reed of Kingston, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Lois Sickler of Carverton. Nancy Valentine, cousin of the bride, was junior bridesmaid.

Best man was Walter Douglas of New York, cousin of the bridegroom and ushers, Fred Tischer of Wyoming and Richard Gillespie of Shamokin, classmates of the bridegroom.

Following the ceremony, a reception for about two hundred guests was held at the home of the bride.

Miss Scureman is a graduate of Kingston Township High School and New York Institute of Dietetics. She has been employed as staff dietician at Jefferson Hospital. Mr. Reed served for twenty-nine months with the U.S. Army as Torpedoman, Second Class. He was graduated from Penn State College last week and after July 3 will be associated with the Dupont Research Laboratories at Baltimore, Md.

The couple will reside in Baltimore.

Miss Scureman has been honored at a number of parties. Miss Eleanor Meagher of Philadelphia entertained at a personal shower and Miss Margaret Heckman and Mrs. Glenn Bitler at a kitchen shower. May 26 Miss Lois Sickler of Carverton entertained at a variety shower. Mrs. Ted Hinkle of Shavertown was hostess at a personal shower recently and Mrs. Henry McQueen at a tea party. Mrs. William Valentine, Meeker, aunt of the bride-elect, entertained members of the wedding party and a few relatives at dinner.
