Beaumont

Both baseball teams won last week when the Town Team took East Dallas and the Little League took Mehoopany. Both teams upped their standings too!

The Fresh Air Kids hated to leave the Lewises and Hadsalls to go back to New York. They wondered if local youngsters appreciated living here.

Louise VanCampen, daughter of the "Tiny" VanCampens, had the misfortune of being run over by a car. Louise is progressing nicely at home after a stay at the General Hospital where Susan Travers, daughter of the Lambert Travers, was admitted Monday night after falling from the Travers' car while it was in motion. We do hope both these kiddoes get well soon and suffer no after effects.

Recent guests around town include Miss Audrey Eddington of Scranton at the Albert VanCampens; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Bittenbender with daughter, Margaret and nephew, Billy Pachick of Newark, N.J. at the Charles Hilberts after attending the Appel-Andrews wedding at the Shavertown Methodist Church; Mr. and Mrs. Martin Williams of Scranton, Mr. and Mrs. Dell Jones of Clark's Summit, Mrs. Clara Smith, and Mrs. Adam Bill of Kingston, also at the Charles Hilberts plus the "Welcome Back" mat to former residents, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Dietz and Mr. and Mrs. Milton Huey of Uleta, Fla.

Rev. Carl Brandon of the Union Church baptized Mrs. Blake Millard and daughter Carol, Romaine Smith, Clara Cook, Shirley Loney, Alice Clark, and Mildred Clark at the Tunkhannock Baptist Church Sunday, August 13.

Mrs. Gene Hilbert has returned from a convention at Doylestown, Pa.

The William Arch Austins have come back to a healthy growth of garden weeds and lawns after a ten day's stay in the Adirondacks, where they fished Black Lake, Oswegatchie River, Black River, West Canada Creek, Sagandaga Lake, Piseco Lake, Oxbow Lake, Otter Lake, and Pleasant Lake only to have Arch debunk the bass fishing with "the bass in the Susquehanna put up a better fight" while the Mrs. wished the sports magazines would stop lauding such places so she might choose a vacation spot just once!

Judges Are Selected For Alderson Show

The W. S. C. S. sponsoring the Flower Show of the Alderson Methodist Church, held at the Lake Township High School Wednesday afternoon and evening of August 23 have announced that the following judges have been appointed by Mrs. George W. Carey and Frank Jackson:

Loren G. Keller, Idetown; Miss Edelia Stevens, Mountain Top; Mrs. Al Marlot, Carverton; Mr. and Mrs. Roy Webb, Scranton; Howell James, Kingston and Mrs. J. Franklin Robinson, Trucksville.

An added feature to the exhibit will be a selection of overtures and marches by the Back Mountain Community Band starting at 8:30. This band, formed forty years ago, now consists of fifty members. It is directed by 20-year-old Johnny Milus Idetown. Milus studied music at Lehman High School and Mansfield State Teachers College. While at the former he was given the State Forensic Music Prize in Oil City in 1948. This honor is offered by Pittsburgh University in competitive examinations of high schools throughout the entire state.
