

Ryman Reunion Held At Binghamton Park

The Ryman Reunion at Ross Park, Binghamton got off to a good start with devotions by George Ryman of Binghamton. "Happy Birthday" was then sung to two of the clan, Mrs. Abram Ryman of Wyoming, who celebrated her seventy-third birthday that day, and Wilson Ryman of East Dallas who rather cheerily hailed his fiftieth.

President William Arch Austin called the business meeting to order and appointed Mrs. Ralph Fink of Wyoming, Mrs. Arthur Webb of Carverton, Mrs. Adabelle Prior of Union, N.Y., Mrs. Paul Valentine of Mehoopany, and Mrs. Asa Ryman of Overton as his committee of historians to compile data relative to the interest of the Rymans.

Mrs. Abram Ryman received the gift as the oldest member present. Mrs. Esther Ryman Boucounis was the youngest mother present.

Mrs. Katie Reeves of Leaksville, N. Carolina came the farthest distance, and the Wilson Ryman had the largest family present, (3 children, Lois, Inez, and Lloyd.)

Births reported were Kathy Mae Tompkins, Cheryl Ann Tompkins, Bobby Tompkins, Barbara Tompkins, (whose grandmothers are Molly and Althea Ryman), Carol Ann Newberry, grandchild of Adabelle Ryman Prior, and Scott Ryman, grandson of Lawrence Ryman of San Francisco.

The death registered was that of Mrs. Edith Ryman Turpin of Washington, D.C.

Officers elected for the coming year are: president, William Arch Austin; vice president, Mrs. Paul Valentine; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. William Arch Austin.

It was voted to hold the 1951 reunion at Traver's Park, Bowman's Creek Road, the first Saturday of August.

Following the business meeting games and prizes were the highlights for the children.

These are the clan members who attended: Mr. and Mrs. Paul Valentine of Mehoopany, Mr. and Mrs. George Ryman, Mrs. Thomas Boucounis and son, David of Johnson City; Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Ryman and children, Lloyd, Inez and Lois of East Dallas; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Fink and daughter, Anita Jean and Mrs. Abram Ryman of Wyoming; Mr. and Mrs. Grover Sayman, Mr. and Mrs. Asa Ryman and children, Sandra and Richard of Overton; Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Prior of Union, N.Y., Mr. and Mrs. George Tompkins of Binghamton, Mrs. Henry Reeves of Leaksville, N. C.; Mrs. Mollie Fuller and daughter, Doris of Marathon, N.Y.; Edward Mokychevic of Edwardsville, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Ryman and daughter, Gail of Chenango Forks, N.Y., and Mr. and Mrs. William Arch Austin of Beaumont.
