Health Wanted

Liberal reward to anyone who can help restore lost health.

It is hopeless, alas, to seek health in the classified columns. It is a treasure far too precious to be bartered.

If you have health, cling to it above all other possessions; if it has escaped you, seek now to regain it. Turn at once to a physician in whom you have confidence; then give him your fullest cooperation.

And we hope, of course, that you will bring your physician's prescriptions to this Professional Pharmacy for conscientious compounding.

Paints Church Interior

Not a stained glass window or an altar candelabrum but a whole church interior freshly painted and decorated will be John Sheehan's memorial to his father-in-law, the late Nicholas Cave, at the new Prince of Peace Church on the lower road.

Every night except Friday, when he takes his two young sons to the movies, John can be found hanging from a rafter with a paint brush in his hand or dabbing earnestly away at the baseboard. This is a one man proposition—and he swears he won't stop until it's finished!
