

Mrs. Lena Hay, Noxen, Improving In City

Mrs. Lena Hay, Noxen, who was removed to the General Hospital, Wilkes-Barre, on Labor Day, in a state of coma due to starvation, is improving and has been discharged in the care of her step-grand-daughter, Miss Mary Coates, Wilkes-Barre.

Mrs. Hay, 80, was taken to the hospital by Fred Swanson in the Harveys Lake ambulance at the request of Dr. Lester M. Saidman, who had been summoned by neighbors who had not seen Mrs. Hay around for some weeks. She had been reduced to a living skeleton by lack of nourishment, and little hope was held out for her recovery.

Her husband, Frank Hay, recipient of Social Security was arrested by Wyoming County authorities and held for investigation on grounds of neglect.

Borough Students Take Subscriptions

Dallas Borough students started soliciting magazine subscriptions on Monday. Funds realized from sales will go toward basketball uniforms and other student activities.

According to Charles James, supervising principal, it takes $20 to outfit each of the ten boys on the team. The goal for the fund is set at $800 to $900.
