

Odd Fellows Plan Party For Sunbury Home Orphans

Among the 150 children who are cared for by the Odd Fellows Orphanage at Sunbury are three infants. The other children range in age to eighteen.

On Saturday night, Odd Fellows Lodges of the Back Mountain region will receive gifts for these children at a Christmas Party to be held at Toby's Creek Lodge, in Trucksville. Members of Rebekah Lodges in the area have also been invited to attend.

There will be a large Christmas Tree and all gifts will be placed under it. Later these will be transported to Sunbury by members of the Lodge.

Persons who are moved to give a donation or gifts of clothing, toys or confections for the children are asked to contact any Odd Fellow who will be glad to see that the gifts are picked up and taken to Sunbury.

Main Street Lights Up

Christmas lights illuminated Main Street for the first time this holiday season on Monday night.

Mrs. Jacob Anderes Home From Bavaria

Mrs. Jacob Anderes, Center Hill Road, has returned from a three month trip to her girlhood home in Upper Bavaria. Her boat from Hamburg docked last Wednesday. On her voyage over, in August, she landed in France and took in Paris on her way to Bavaria.

She had the rare experience of seeing the Passion Play at Oberammergau in September. Some of her relatives live close at hand.

This is the first time she has been away from the United States since she landed here twenty-one years ago. Mrs. Anderes says that landing in New York this time was far different from landing there as a young married woman, not familiar with the language or the customs. It was a great joy to renew acquaintance with the family and the old friends, but she is glad to be home again.

Drawn For Jury

Russell Steele of Meeker and Clarence E. Shaver Sr. of Harveys Lake were among the hundred eighty jurors drawn by Judge Valentine Wednesday to serve for the week of January 22.

Master Of Grange

William Trethaway, Outlet road, Lehman, was installed as Master at the meeting of Pomona Grange 44 held at Jackson Grange Hall Saturday night. Installation was in charge of State Deputy Charles Adams.

Leave For Army

Among the eighty five boys inducted and sent to Fort Knox, Ky. Wednesday were Fred M. Templin and Carl J. Kern of Dallas, Howard Lamoreaux of Shavertown, Carl H. Dewitt, John C. Holdredge, Warren J. Cease and Robert W. Gardner Jr. of Trucksville.

Meeker Class Party

The Sunshine Sunday School Class of Meeker Methodist Church will hold its Christmas party at the home of Mrs. William Drabick on Wednesday.
