Cub Scout Pack Enjoys Dinner

Eighteen Boys Are Advanced In Rank

Nearly 100 parents, Cub Scouts, and visitors attended the first Blue and Gold Banquet of Cub Scout Pack 233 held Monday night in Prince of Peace Episcopal Church Parish Hall. The banquet is an annual affair which every Cub Pack holds during National Scout Anniversary month in February and takes its name from the color scheme of the Cub Scout uniform.

Pack 233 sponsored by Shavertown Volunteer Fire Department was organized last August and has a membership of 28 Cubs.

Program features included presentation of awards, the graduation of two Cubs into Boy Scouting and the induction of new Cubs. Ever since their organization the Cubs have been busily engaged working on the requirements for Wolf, Bear, and Lion Cub, the three ranks of Cub Scouting. Their parents have worked with them under the guidance of the Den Mothers, Mrs. Merton Coolbaugh, Mrs. Raymond Malkemes, and Mrs. Dale Parry, Cubmaster James Eckerd, and Assistant Cubmaster Charles Roberts.

The following received advancements in rank:

Wolf Cub, Dick Thomas, Roy Hall, Raymond Malkemes, James Eck, Jimmy Eckerd, Jim Parry and Edward Siderek.

Bear Cub, John Siderek, Jim Borthwick, Walter Williams, David Roberts, Raymond Malkemes, Warren Long, Kenneth Coombs, Robert Shotwell, Laing Coolbaugh, Billy Hall.

Graduated from the Pack to membership in Scout Troop 231 of Shavertown, were Donald and David Zimmerman who last month became eleven years of age.

Inducted as new Cubs were: Jimmy Morgan, and Dickie Powell. James Eckerd, Cubmaster, acted as master of ceremonies for the banquet and Mrs. Malcolm Borthwick served as chairman of the committee in charge of arrangements.

Five Hundred Women Receive Hawaiian Orchids At Evans

Here are only a few of more than 500 women who received free orchids and pin-on clasps at Evans Rexall Drug Store on Saturday. The orchids, shipped here by air from Hawaii arrived in perfect condition Friday afternoon at Avoca Airport.

Among the first to receive them early Saturday morning were Mrs. Grover Anderson, Harveys Lake; Mrs. Peter Malkemes, Trucksville; Mrs. Ralph Misson, DeMunds road, and Janet Houser and Peggy Malkemes, Shavertown.

From then on until 3:30 when the supply was exhausted no women left the store without an orchid. Women of all ages came for them, and all were delighted. Many had never worn an orchid before. "I've been married thirty-five years," said one, "and this is the first orchid I've ever seen."

Most smiled happily and pinned them on their coats and frocks immediately; but some, especially the older women, wanted to save theirs and tucked them in paper bags for easier handling. Sunday many wore them to church as is shown in three of the pictures above taken at the entrance to Prince of Peace Episcopal Church. Many shut-ins also received orchids.
