WAITING FOR THAT BLUEBIRD

The James Kozemchak cat, in case bird lovers are perturbed, does not often roost on the bird house. It was treed on this occasion by a pair of sportive dogs, clawed its way up the pine tree, and reached a small branch behind the birdhouse. That accounts for its hunted expression.

The three Kozemchak children, David, Jimmie, and Elaine, each have a birdhouse which draws steady customers during the nesting season. It is David's birdhouse which is being guarded.
The cat's name? Here, Kitty-Kitty.

Book Club Buys Twenty-Two Books

During January and February, twenty-two new books were purchased for the Book Club and placed on the Library Book Club shelves, according to a report of the Book Selection Committee, chairman, Mrs. H. W. Smith, vice chairman Mrs. Fred Howell.

The Book Selection committee meets on the second Wednesday at 2 P. M. at the library.

Books purchased are: Masters, Nighttrunners of Bengal, Historical novel; Ullman, River of the Sun, Fiction; Colver, The Parson, fiction; Mack, Deborah, fiction; Roberts, Henry Gross and his Downsing Rod, non fiction; Standish, Follow the Seventh Man, fiction; Marshall, The Longest Way Around, fiction; Flannigan, The Faith of Mrs. Kileen, fiction; Ward, Policy of the West, non-fiction; Bates, The Scarlet Sword, fiction; Giles, Miss Willie, fiction; Tolodano, Seeds of Treason, non-fiction; Boswell, London Journal, non-fiction; Seton, Foxfire, fiction; Moody, Little Britches, fiction; Miller, We Have Given Our Hearts Away, fiction; Orga, Portrait of a Turkish Family, fiction; Holbrook, The Yankee Exodus, non-fiction; Loring, Mourning Journey, fiction; Home, The Grain of the Wood, fiction.

Postoffice Starts Spring Peeping

When the postoffice starts peeping, spring is here, no matter what the thermometer says.

Ten days ago the Dallas Post-Office received its first shipment of day-old chicks. It is a one-way traffic, with everything coming in and nothing going out of this area, except for Paul Warriner's shipments of baby ducks. With day-old chicks, the local supply is snapped up by local consumers, and more needed to fill the demand.

Baby ducks travel in the same type container that chicks do, but just half as many to a perforated carton. A baby duck can go three days after hatching without food and drink, but forty-eight hours limit is safer, according to Paul Warriner, owner of the Wayside Duck Farm.

Paul's first batch of 600 came off on schedule on Tuesday, with shipment made the same day. Wayside Farm baby ducks are shipped all over the East and arrive, via parcel post, in excellent condition.

where all persons interested may appear and show cause, if any they have, why the prayer of said petition should not be granted.

Ruth Turn Reynolds To Give Vocal Recital

Ruth Turn Reynolds, Trucksville soprano, and Clifford Balshaw, organist, will be presented in a recital by the Wilkes-Barre Chapter of the American Guild of Organists in Grace Episcopal Church, Kingston, Sunday afternoon, March 11 at 4 o'clock.

Mrs. Reynolds is organist and choir director of Dallas Methodist Church and maintains a voice studio in Wilkes-Barre and in Trucksville—where she also teaches a music kindergarten. She is a member of Wyoming Valley Oratorio and Mozart Club Chorale, having been soloists in both. She will be accompanied at the organ by Mr. Balshaw and Mr. Eugene Brandstadter will play the violin obligato.

Mr. Balshaw is organist and choir director at St. Stephen's Episcopal Church and at Temple B'nai B'rith. He is a member of the faculty of Wilkes College, accompanist for Concordia and organist for the Wyoming Valley Oratorio Society.

Prove Civic-Minded

Dallas Senior Girl Scouts have given up their own pre-school egg hunt in order to help with the Kingston Township Easter egg hunt. This decision was made after a member of the Kingston Township police force, acting as emissary for Officer Lou Banta, came to call on Mrs. Stefan Heller, Senior Scout leader, and laid the case before her. Persuaded that combining forces would be the civic-minded solution to the problem, Mrs. Heller got in touch with troop committee and Girl Scouts, and was authorized to abandon the original project in favor of assisting with the Kingston Township project.
