Irene Arnold Writes About Forest Lawn

siders jointure the only course open under present conditions.

Always a leader, never content to be a follower, she was president of the General Hospital Alumnae Association in 1937, as well as secretary for several years. When Kiwanis women first formed their organization in the Back Mountain five years ago, she was elected first president, served as social service chairman for several years, relinquishing this post last year because of ill health. She has been interested in the Community Center, the library auction, in fact everything that concerns the Back Mountain.

A city child by birth and brought up in city schools, she has lived in the Dallas area for the past ten years, sampling a variety of locations in Carverton, Harris Hill Road, Spring street, and two places on Pioneer avenue, Shavertown. Her present home is a house which she and her husband are revamping. Both of them were bitten by that buy-an-old-house-and-do-it-over bug two years ago. Up to date, in accordance with a ten-year plan of campaign, they have extended the present dwelling to take in a back porch and remodel it into modern kitchen and den, with future plans for a wing on the side toward the Walter Shaver house, a stone wall in the rear, a level terrace for a garden, and a face-lifting of the front and side lawns.

Mrs. Anderson was a member of the first graduating class of the newly constructed G. A. R. High School in 1928, moving there from Coughlin in her sophomore year. She was on the Year Book staff and secretary for the graduating class.

And to trace her clear back to her beginnings, she was born in Wilkes-Barre, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herman Bamert. Her mother died when she was two months old, and her great-aunt and uncle, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hufford, brought her up. It was their daughter, Flora, a registered nurse, who influenced young Dorothy to take up training, and the same Flora who has a namesake in nine-year-old Flora Sue, Mrs. Anderson's youngest child. There is also a boy, Fred Junior, 13, in Kingston Township High School.

She says she isn't contented. Folks with ambitions never are. Liberally translated, that "divine discontent" is what makes for progress. The feeling that there is much to accomplish and that the time is too short for all the interesting things there are to do in the world, is guaranteed to keep folks from being stodgy.

Mrs. Anderson isn't stodgy. She hasn't time to be.

Degree in 1932, he became a member of the English Graduate Faculty, Claremont Colleges, California. He has been President of Wilson College since 1932. From Washington and Jefferson College and Dickinson College, he received the honorary LL. D.
