

News of the Churches

Dallas Methodist
Today (Friday) Jessie A. Brickel Class will hold its monthly meeting in the Social Rooms at 8. Devotions, followed by business and social hour.

Sunday—10:00 Sunday School with classes for all ages above three. 11:00 Morning Worship. Sermon—"In the Beginning God". This is the second in a series of sermons on "The Great Texts of the Bible". Special music will be presented by the church choir. A cordial welcome is extended to all. Pre-school children are cared for in the Church Nursery during the Service. 6:30 Methodist Youth Fellowship. Devotions will be conducted by Carl Bailey. Charlyn Reinfort will lead the discussion period. Recreation will follow. 7:15 Sunday Evening Fellowship. The first in a series of four motion pictures will be shown. These pictures are of high quality reproduction with sound. This week we shall present the film, "Second Chance". This is considered the outstanding inspirational film of the Protestant Film Commission, and is based on Faith Baldwin's story. Louella Parsons comments "Second Chance is exceptionally worth seeing". Other comments: Jimmy Fidler—

"Inspirational as it is entertaining"; Dorothy Manners—"a strictly professional production". A brief worship service will precede the picture. No admission charge, but an offering will be received. Bring the children and your friends.

Monday—7:00 Boy Scouts meet in the Social Rooms.
Tuesday—8:00 Meeting of Board of Education.
Thursday—4:00 Junior Choir; 6:30 Youth Choir; 8:00 Adult Choir.

Members of the Book Club are requested to exchange books.

St. Paul's Church
Two services, 8:30 A. M. and 11:00 A. M., have greatly increased the number of worshippers at St. Paul's Lutheran Church, Shavertown. Both services are similar, the hymns are the same, and the liturgy is the same, and the pastor preaches the same powerful Word of God.

This Sunday, the Fourth Sunday after Easter, the pastor of the Church, the Reverend Frederick W. Mook, Jr., will use as his sermon theme "The Truth Must Be Told." 9:45 A. M.—Sunday School. Great Old Testament lessons are now being taught in the light of New Testament revelation. 7:00 P. M.—Luther League. The young people of our congregation and their friends are cordially invited to the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Heidere.

Monday, April 23, at 8:00 P. M.—The Brotherhood. Movies will be shown.

TRUCKSVILLE CHURCH
The Rev. Mr. Webster has been returned to the White Church on the Hill for his fourth year. The appointment was made by Bishop Corsen at the recent conference held in Central Church of Wilkes-Barre.

Due to the renovation of the Church basement, there was no Sunday School last Sunday, and the worship service was held in Kingston Township High School. Appreciation is expressed to the School Board for their willing approval of the usage of the building for our service.

Sunday School classes will be resumed as usual at 9:30 next Sunday morning, April 22nd, with classes for all ages.

Worship service will be held in the Church as usual next Sunday at 10:45 A. M. A nursery is conducted during the service for pre-school age children, and is under the direction of Mrs. Franklin Hemenway.

Sunday evening, April 22nd, at 7:30 o'clock, at St. John's Lutheran Church, Academy and River streets, Wilkes-Barre, the Rev. F. Andrew Sommese, Pastor of St. Peter's Lutheran Church in Philadelphia will speak on the subject "Truth and Error."

On Tuesdays, from April 24th to May 29th, at Wyoming Seminary, there will be a Leadership Training School, sponsored by the Wyoming Valley Council of Churches. An excellent group of courses will be offered, taught by Rabbi Newton J. Friedman, Dr. Norman Clemens, Dr. Ralph Decker, and Rev. Jule Ayres. Sunday School teachers and officers of our Church are urged to take advantage of these courses, which are very worth while.

Wednesday, April 25, at 8 P. M., the Mission Study Group will meet at the home of Mrs. Levi Crews at Hillside. Mrs. Earl Hons of Shavertown will review the Study Book.

Thursday, April 26, the W.S.C.S. will meet at 1:45 P. M.

Friday, April 27, the Queen Esthers will sponsor a tea at the Church, the proceeds of which will be used toward expenses for the girls who will attend the missionary camp at Sky Lake this summer. The W. S. C. S. women are especially urged to support the girls in this undertaking, and any one willing to help in any way should contact Mrs. Harold Croom.

SHAVERTOWN CHURCH
Rev. Roswell W. Lyon, District Superintendent of the Methodist Church in the Wilkes-Barre District will occupy the pulpit of the Shavertown Methodist Church on Sunday, April 22 at 11 o'clock.
