Miss Gloria Sickler Becomes Bride Of Pvt. George Parrish

At a very pretty wedding, Miss Gloria Florence Sickler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dana Sickler of Carverton, became the bride of Pvt. George Parrish, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Parrish, Carverton, Saturday at 1 o'clock. Rev. Robert Wood performed the double ring ceremony in Carverton Methodist Church before an altar banked with palms and white snapdragons and flanked with candelabra.

Mary Jane Thomas was organist and Sam Davis sang "O Promise Me" and "I Love You Truly".

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white nylon tulle and lace gown featuring princess lines, high stand up collar and long tight sleeves tapered at the wrist. Her full bouffant skirt ended in a court train and her two tier veil of French illusion fell from a simple cap edged with seed pearls. She carried a white Bible marked with white orchid and lilies of valley.

Her sister, Mrs. David Perry, Jr., as matron of honor, chose blue marquisette styled with strapless neckline, tight bodice and full skirt. She carried a Colonial bouquet of mixed flowers and wore a matching halo.

Bridesmaids were Miss Janet Reading of Wyoming and Miss Mary Louise Lewis, a niece of the bridegroom, of Mt. Zion. Miss

Reading selected peach marquisette over green satin, fashioned with strapless neckline, tight bodice and full skirt, and Miss Lewis, pink taffeta, with strapless neckline and full net skirt. Both carried Colonial bouquets and wore matching halos.

Alice Woolbert, niece of the bridegroom, was junior bridesmaid. She wore white dotted swiss over aqua taffeta and flower halo and carried a Colonial bouquet of mixed flowers.

Mrs. Sickler, mother of the bride, chose navy sheer street length dress with matching accessories and Mrs. Parrish, mother of the bridegroom, rose crepe with navy accessories. Both wore natural colored straw hats and shoulder bouquet of orchids.

Following the ceremony a reception for guests was held at the Irem Temple Country Club and the couple left for New York City.

Mrs. Parrish is a graduate of Kingston Township High School and is employed at E. M. K. Y. Manufacturing Company at Wyoming. Pvt. Parrish was graduated from Mehoopany High School and before entering the service in January worked for G. E. German and Son.

He will leave for overseas duty in Germany June 1.

THE WEATHER and human ailments are favorite topics of everyday conversation. The next-door neighbor is alert to recommend her favorite remedy for any set of symptoms. Another friend holds implicit faith in something else. You are caught in a cross fire of claims and counterclaims.

Artemus Ward observed that, "The trouble with people is they know too many things that ain't so." What seem to be almost identical symptoms in two patients may result from entirely different causes.
