

Noxen Eighth Grade Manages Stamp Drive

First and second graders in Mrs. Eva Rundell's room at Noxen school won first place in the savings stamp drive inaugurated and carried out during the year by the eighth grade. They bought $176.40 worth of ten cent stamps, $35.75 of 25 cent stamps, a total of $212.15.

Total collections reached $1,071.30.

Tally by home rooms shows Mrs. Letha Byrne's third grade leading in purchase of bonds with nine, bonds $150.40; Mrs. May Van Campen's, 4th and 5th, eight bonds, total $171.65; Mrs. Marjorie Hughes, 6th, three bonds, receipts $118.30; Mrs. Violet Ruff, 7th and 9th, one bond, $25; Jessica Thomas, 8th and 10th, two bonds, $83.90; Mrs. Martha Smith, 11th and 12th, six bonds, $42.75.

The collection was a project of the mathematics class under the instruction of Mrs. Martha Smith, who suggested it as designed to furnish practical application of the subject. Eighth grade students, with Eunice Traver as cashier, offered incentives for competition among the grades, awarded the weekly banner handled collections, and kept all records, with a discrepancy of only 54 cents at the end of the year.

Mrs. Rundell's class was given a party as award, with these prize winners: Percy MacMillan, peanut scramble; Nick Benjamin, 25-yard dash and ball throwing; Eileen Cummings, 25-yard dash and ball throwing for girls; Joy Blizzard, balloon burst; Betty Kovalick, balloon blowing race.
