YMCA Da-Camp To Open On July 9th

YMCA Da-Camp—camping for a day—a program under qualified leadership for a six-week period will begin July 9 at Shavertown Annex School building, now Back Mountain "Y" Headquarters.

The program will function Monday, Wednesday and Friday of each week for boys and girls between the ages of 8 to 14.

At present E. L. Wyant, Executive Secretary of the Back Mountain "Y", is drawing up a program to cover hiking, swimming, athletics, woodcraft, handicraft, knitting, story telling, and movies.

The boys will come under direct supervision of Mr. Wyant while the girls will have their own qualified leader. Parents are to furnish the means of bringing and picking up their child from the "Y" headquarters while a slight additional charge will carry the children from Shavertown to other points of interest.

Vanilla, in its natural states, is a long green bean.

The nominal fee will give the child all the facilities of Da-Camp, registration in the Back Mountain "Y", plus milk to drink. For further information call E. L. Wyant, Wilkes-Barre, 3-2191 or Harveys Lake, 3490.

Heads Revival

Evangelist Joseph W. Arnett

Pastor R. W. Edmondson announces that the revival which began last week in the Shavertown Bible Church will continue all next week.

Evangelist Joseph W. Arnett of St. Louis is preaching every night at 7:45. He is a member of the Independent Fundamental Churches of America and the American Council of Christian Churches.

Mr. Arnett's writings have appeared in several Anthologies of American poets, The Sunday School Times, The Voice Magazine, Christian Victory and The Young People's Delight.
