

Peter Rekus Voted Fifth Honor Scout

112 Attend Father And Son Dinner Of St. Therese's Troop

Boy Scout Troop 232, St. Therese's Church, conducted its fifth annual Father and Son Banquet on Father's Day, in the Church auditorium.

Peter Rekus, Jr., was named Honor Scout of the year. He and his dad were escorted to the speaker's table by the former Honor Scouts and thereby fixed his name plate to the Plaque with a screw in each end of the engraved plate.

Robert Purcell, toastmaster, was introduced by John Baur, Sr., chairman of the Scout Committee. Peter Rekus, Jr., welcomed the dads for his fellow Scouts. Peter Lincoln, speaking for the dads, thanked the boys for the Banquet and the honor. Each boy earned the money to pay for his and his dad's dinner. Nelson Downdend presented the puppet show.

Lew Jordan, Assistant Scout Executive, presented the Charter to the troop and also presented the Charter to the recently formed Explorer Post 232, B.S.A., of which Eugene Heinrich is the Explorer Adviser.

Rev. J. J. O'Leary, pastor of St. Therese's, spoke, and introduced Rev. Bernard Grogan as principal speaker of the evening.

The Explorer Scouts demonstrated how to make a rope and the Panther and Rattlesnake Patrols had a tug of war with the rope to prove its strength. The troop then invested tenderfoot scouts, Donald Gavigan and Lewis Schultz, with a candle lighting ceremony, and then presented Badges to First Class Scouts, Peter Rekus and Gene Heinrich; Second Class Badges to Martin Richert, Walter French and John Derr. Star Badges were presented to Bernard Banks, Robert Purcell and Ralph Downdend. Scout John Baur received his Life Scout Badge. All Badges were first presented to the boy's father who pinned it on his son.

Officers of the troop were sworn in.

Scoutmaster John Butler spoke of the different merits that enabled Peter Rekus to become the Fifth Honor Scout.

Each Scout presented his mother with a rose corsage and a kiss. Father Francis Kane closed the program with prayer.

There were 112 present.
