Founding Father Of Church Dies

Frederick Renard Passes Away At 80

With the death of Frederick H. Renard, Prince of Peace Church has lost one of its founding fathers and staunchest supporters. The actual building of the church after such long term planning was to Mr. Renard a dream come true. It was fitting that he should be buried from it on Wednesday afternoon.

Funeral services were conducted by Rev. William Williams, rector, and burial was in Forty Fort Cemetery.

Twenty Spanish American War veterans fired a volley over his grave. Mr. Renard, 80, had been in failing health and recently was hospitalized at the Veteran's Hospital, Wilkes-Barre.

He had been an important member of the dedication party last year when the Prince of Peace Church, a former mission of Grace Episcopal in Kingston, was dedicated as a church in its own right. Church services in the early days of the mission were often held in Mr. Renard's own home. For many years he led the choir at Grace Episcopal, and was well known for his excellent voice and sound musical background.

Born in Plymouth, son of the late James and Mary Pickett Renard, he lived in Wilkes-Barre and Kingston before moving to Dallas twenty-five years ago. He was employed as a cabinet maker at Steinhauer Brothers before retiring eleven years ago.

He is survived by his second wife, Mrs. Isabelle Murray Renard; a sister, Mrs. Chester Ferguson, Wilkes-Barre; a brother, Walter, Wilkes-Barre; and several nieces and nephews.

Bearers were Donald Clark, Charles W. Lee, Clarence Woodruff, Ralph Davis, Alfred James, Paul Goddard, and Calvin Hall.

W. C. Blizzard Funeral To Be Held On Sunday

Funeral services will be held Sunday at 2:30 from St. Luke's Lutheran Church, Noxen, for Walter C. Blizzard who died Thursday after a lingering illness. Rev. Henry Kraft will officiate with burial in Orcutt's Cemetery.

Surviving besides his wife, the former Leona Evans, are the following: five daughters, Mrs. Alton Fields, Jamestown, N. Y.; Mrs. Clayton Keiper, Noxen; Miss Affie, North Arlington, N. J.; Mrs. Ward Vanderhoff, North Arlington, N. J.; Christine at home; two sons, Harry of Spokane, Wash., and Delbert of Noxen; three sisters, Mrs. Francis Belles, Noxen, Mrs. Sylvester Traver, Noxen R. D., Mrs. Elwood Warman, Westfield, Pa.; three brothers, Ray of Briar Creek, Sam of Noxen and George of Luzerne; eighteen grandchildren and one great grandchild.

Pour Foundation For Pump House

Ahead of schedule, Dallas, Shavertown Water Company is pouring concrete for foundations of the new Pump House. Foundations for the pump are already poured.

Les Warhola states that extension of the main to existing mains will be completed early next week.

John Thomas Earl

Mr. and Mrs. Ben Earl, Washington, D. C., announce the birth of a six-pound, thirteen-ounce baby boy, John Thomas. This is their first child. Mrs. Earl is the former Ruth Hontz of Shavertown.

John Engler's Funeral This Afternoon At 1:30

John C. Engler, Davenport street, Dallas, will be buried this afternoon in Oaklawn Cemetery, following funeral services at 1:30 conducted by Rev. Howard Harrison, former pastor of Shavertown Methodist Church, from the Kniffen Funeral Home, Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. Engler died suddenly Tuesday night at 10:15, from a heart attack.

For twenty-four years an employee of Wilkes-Barre Transit Company, he retired four years ago. It was Mr. Engler who piloted the first trackless trolley to Forty Fort, later was assigned to the Nanticoke run.

Mr. and Mrs. Engler, residents of Shavertown for twenty years previous to moving to Dallas one month ago, were taking their time completing their new house, recently built and not yet finished. He was a member of Shavertown Methodist Church, and belonged to Local 164, Amalgamated Association of Street Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees of America.

Surviving are his widow, the former Thursa Long; two sons, Sgt. John L. Engler, Camp Kilmer, N.J.; and Sgt. William R. Engler, with the US Army in Japan; a daughter, Mrs. Melvin Laughner, Wilkes-Barre; six grandchildren; his mother, Mrs. Estella Tripf and a brother, Frank Engler, both of Mill City; and two sisters, Clara Engler, Binghamton, and Mrs. Sara Rought, Trucksville.

Plan Card Party

Football Mothers of Westmoreland High School will sponsor a card party at the Shavertown Fire Hall, October 24 at 8 p. m. Mrs. Edward Carey and Mrs. Gordon Edwards are co-chairmen.

Express Gratitude

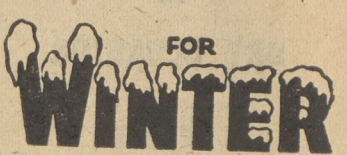

The family of the late Arthur Beahm wish to thank all those who assisted in any way during their recent bereavement.
