

REDSKINS MEET W. WYOMING TOMMORROW

Redskins Outplay Tunkhannock In Postponed Game On Monday

Dallas Township unleashed a crushing ground offensive to topple Tunkhannock 26-0 Monday afternoon at Dallas Township. This unusual date was caused by postponement of Saturday's tilt due to inclement weather. Coach Bob Thomas' Redskins added to a 7-0 halftime advantage to stun the Tunks into submission with a series of quick opening line plays which ate up yardage in large chunks.

Bob Bellas and Roy Tryon, a pair of fast-stepping hard-charging half-backs, were outstanding as they varied end sweeps with off tackle slants in a one two punch which kept Tunkhannock groggy throughout the game. Although Bellas and Tryon were the feature attraction, the supporting cast was outstanding in its own right. The defensive work of the Redskin line was tremendous. However the plaudits must be reserved for the fine all round protection given the Redskin runners whenever they hit the Tunk line. The Redskin line opened some king sized holes to allow the backfield of Tryon, Bellas, Harris and Eckert to romp at will in the Tunk secondary while the downfield blocking time and again allowed the runner to continue for extra yardage.

Notable absentee in the Tunkhannock lineup was Ozzie Hudock. His absence was definitely felt as his power plunges and accurate passing are the mainstays of the Tunkhannock attack. Besides the scoring done by the Redskins, they tallied three additional times only to have the touchdowns called back by penalties. Don Eckert scored his first TD of the season only to have it nullified. However on the next play, Bellas broke through to score. Tunkhannock's main scoring threat was also nullified by a penalty. The Tunks had the pigskin on the Dallas six-inch line when a 15-yard clipping penalty pushed them back. A pass interception by Bob Harris put the end to another scoring threat.

This week's $64 question—"When will the final game of the Bi-County Baseball League Playoffs between Orange and Beaumont be held?"

Elwood ("Chiz") Patton's family certainly enjoyed the wild turkey "Chiz" bagged the first day of hunting.

William Klamovich had the misfortune of getting in range of some shot gun pellets the first day. He is convalescing nicely.

David Traver son of the Michael Travers, is glad to be home after a year's service in the artillery in Korea.

Mrs. Edward MacDougall has been confined to her home due to a virus infection. Mrs. Ray Gunton has been substituting at school for her.

The Emil Balewskis have returned from Florida where they left Mrs. Fred Dietz, Sr., who will remain with her son, Fred, Jr., for part of the winter months.

Mrs. John Smith of Philadelphia is spending some time with her parents, the C. W. Smiths.

The Local Service Unit of the Salvation Army sends its sincere and gracious thanks for the $126.36 given by the following: Beaumont Schools, Beaumont Missionary Society, Mrs. Ernest Brown, Cragg Herdman, Ellis Swingle, C. Redskins And West Wyoming Meet Tomorrow

Westmoreland And Lehman Will Travel To Distant Fields

Dallas Township has its last home game of the season Saturday with West Wyoming at 2:00 on Dallas Township Memorial Field. Both Lehman and Westmoreland are away against some very tough opposition. Westmoreland meets Wyoming in its final Luzerne County Conference tilt. Lehman visits Wilkes-Barre Township in a game which finds the Scotties decided underdogs.

The Redskins under coach Bob Thomas are favored to win their fourth game of the year against a winless West Wyoming eleven. The Redskins all-star backfield of Bellas, Tryon, Harris and Eckert working behind a strong line should be able to rip through West Wyoming at will. The Redskins will be preparing for the all important Thanksgiving Day game with Westmoreland and the West Wyoming game should provide the right touch to smooth out any kinks in the Dallas offense.

The Mustangs from Westmoreland will run up against a very rugged Wyoming eleven. Wyoming has defeated Wilkes-Barre Township, West Pittston, Moosic, Edwardsville, and Shickshinny, and has been defeated only by Exeter 14-12 and Forty Fort 20-14. Richards and company will have to be on their toes to garner the victory in this encounter.

Lehman will be in the unenviable position of playing Wilkes-Barre Township which has already won five games in the tough Luzerne County Conference. The Scotties, in the throes of their worst season in some time, will be hard put even to score against the larger Wilkes-Barre Township lads.

Mustangs' Fighting Spirit Brought Victory When Defeat Seemed Certain

A pass interception by Glenn Carey with only seconds left to play and with Shickshinny on the Westmoreland three-yard line finally pulled the contest out of the fire for the underdog Westmoreland eleven and gave them a well deserved victory.

A bitter cold Saturday afternoon and a wet gridiron held down the number of spectators but little affected the caliber of play as Westmoreland downed Shickshinny 21-18 to move up another notch in Luzerne Conference standings.

The game was to have been played at Shickshinny but wet grounds forced it to be moved to the Trucksville gridiron.

Behind during the entire game, Westmoreland pushed across a score in the final period and then staved off the Shickshinny threats to bring home the victory in an electrifying finish. Ed Carey scored two touchdowns and Bernie Sherin one in the Mustangs' fight against the clock.

Jack Richards scored two of the extra points and Ed Carey one as the Mustangs elected to make their attempts on the ground rather than through place kicking. This move proved to be the smartest of the game as the Mustangs scored all three times on the extra points and Shickshinny failed to make good any conversions. Richards was the outstanding offensive player as he passed to Sherin directly for one score and set up the others with amazingly accurate passing of a wet, slippery ball. Jim Dolhon with his plunges and Ed Carey with his end sweeps kept the Shickshinny defense upset and set up Richard's aerial forays.

Shickshinny shook loose its backs for three touchdowns from a well handled T formation. Quarterback Buzzy Bach mixed a variety of plays which had the Mustangs guessing for a good part of the time. Defensive play by Purvin, Greener, Ed Carey and Glen Carey helped the Mustangs stave off the Shickshinny threats. Carey's interception was the top defensive play, but an interception by Purvin in the third quarter stalled another Shickshinny goalward drive. Tony Greener recovered the Shickshinny fumble in the last quarter which set up the final Mustang touchdown.

Trophies For Shupp, Austin, and Sickler

George Shupp, president and business manager of the East Dallas Baseball Club, was presented with a baseball trophy Thursday night at the Bi-County League banquet in Beaumont in recognition of having done the most for his team and for the League.

George Gay, Tunkhannock, in making the presentation and award, ended his remarks by saying:

"Keep an eye on George. He's presidential timber for next year." Harry Sickler and Arch Austin also were given awards, Sickler for management of the winning team, Orange, and Austin for the runner-up, Beaumont.

Doug Carter, president of Susquehanna-Wyoming County League was a guest.

Herman Kern was Master of Ceremonies, and Kunkle orchestra furnished music.

League umpires were introduced by president Ronald Green. Chairman of the banquet, which was served family style by Beaumont School cafeteria, was George Shupp.
