Co-Colonel Of Membership Drive

MRS. RALPH DOWNEND

Mrs. Ralph Downend, Midland Drive, is Co-Colonel of 1952 Catholic Youth Center Membership Drive, her husband, Ralph Downend, is Colonel.

In the three years since its organization, the Catholic Youth Center, located now on South Washington street, Wilkes-Barre in the building formerly occupied by Y.M.H.A. has given service to 350,000 persons, children, teenagers, young adults, and adults.

A meeting of all workers is announced for Monday at 8 PM, at the Youth Center. Final instructions will be given.

Donation Tea Today At Old Ladies' Home

It is not too late to make a donation to the Old Ladies Home in Wilkes-Barre. Donors are cordially invited to drop around to tea this afternoon from 2-5 or this evening from 7-9. There is need for sheets, towels, and other household linen as well as canned goods, staple groceries, and cash.

The Dallas Post was in error last week in saying that only two residents of the Back Mountain area are guests at the Home. Five out of the thirty-nine women lived originally in this territory: the Misses Grace and Laura White, Trucksville; Mrs. Bessie Gibbs, Dallas; Mrs. Mary Jepson, Trucksville; and Miss Flora Brown, Dallas.

Laidlers Entertain Township PTA Board

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Laidler entertained officers and board members of Dallas Township Parent Teacher Association at their home on Pioneer Avenue Monday night. Plans were made to move playground equipment from the Orange school yard to Dallas. An interesting November meeting was outlined.

Attending the meeting were: A. W. Simms, Mrs. Raymond J. Elston, Attorney Robert Fleming, Mrs. Willard Seymour, J. J. Maza, Charles Roberts, Mrs. Jack Barnes, Raymond Kuhnert, Mrs. Ames Campbell and the host and hostess.

Members Of Grange To Attend Convention

Thirty-three members of the Grange residing in the Back Mountain Area will attend the National Grange Convention at Atlantic City Saturday and see some of their neighbors receive the Seventh Degree, the highest award of the Grange.

Pointing the way, will be Mr. and Mrs. George Rice of Orchard Farm who received the degree some years ago and Miss Mrytle Major, also an "old timer".

The group will go by bus, leaving Kingston Corners at 6 a.m. and the Martz Terminal at 6:15 a. m.
