4H Baby Beef Showplace Changed

Luzerne County 4H Baby Beef Club will hold its local show at Sutter's Lumber Yard, Nescopeck, Monday, November 26th at 7 P. M. This location was selected after it became known that the farmers Night Market was closed for the season on Monday nights. Previous publicity announced that the Night Market area on Pierce St., Kingston would be used. All interested persons are invited to attend the show at the Sutter Lumber Yard in Nescopeck.

Thomas B. King, livestock specialist from Penn State will judge the event. Angus steers will be shown by Virginia Briggs, Nescopeck, R. D., Shirley Campbell, Nescopeck, R. D., and Robert Wright, Stillwater, R. D.

Hereford steers will be shown by Bobby Rice, Dallas; Ray and Durwood Karchner, Harold Campbell, Helen Arner, Aubrey and Janet Smith all of Nescopeck, R. D.

L. G. Yearick, assistant county farm agent, reports the steers to be in fine shape. Each club member will fit his animal at home previous to transporting it to Nescopeck, leaving only touching-up jobs to do on the grounds.

Truckville Fire Auxiliary will hold a Bingo party at the Fire Hall Saturday night at 8. Chairmen are Mrs. Bud Silverman and Mrs. John Kennan.

Gets Wild Turkey

Fred Drake, hunting alone Saturday on Forkston Mountain, shot his first wild turkey. Fred had excellent luck that day getting his limit of grouse as well, which also completed his season's limit for that royal bird.

eighteen game series. A strong Dallas Township eleven led by Joe Tondora was battled to a standstill by an underdog Katie team led by Bob Youngblood. The 6-6 score gives no indication of the hard, brutal battle both teams put up to win the victory.

1946 GAME
Kingston Township won this one 12-6. Again it was Tondora matched against Youngblood in a running duel. Bob Hughes tallied the lone Dallas score following a pass interception. A pair of long runs by Youngblood and Dave Cairns produced the Katie scores.

1945
Dallas Township lost another thriller 14-6 as Kingston Township triumphed over a favored but injury riddled Redskin eleven. Tex Wilson scored for Dallas on a plunge. Bob Youngblood passed to Bob Morgan for one touchdown and tallied the other himself.

1944
Kingston Township added an-

Gettin' Any Eggs Yet?

Are those chicks you bought this summer startin' to produce yet? If they aren't you better build a fire under 'em 'cause you should be gettin' eggs every day now. The best way to get your pullets to fulfill their purpose in life right quick is to get as much vitamin-enriched Glidden Laying Mash into 'em as you can. Believe me, you'll get more eggs per bag of feed with this scientifically developed and proven Glidden Laying Mash. It works with my birds, it works for my customers' birds and it will sure work for yours. Stop in and get some.

other triumph to its string 12-0 as both teams had poor seasons. Bob Morgan and Art Kitchen led the victorious Katie team while Tex Wilson supported by Darrell Harding and Bill Hart played good ball for the green Dallas Township eleven.

A narrow 6-0 squeaker won by Kingston Township as Dallas Township made a valiant but vain effort to wrest supremacy from the Kates. Jack Porter and Warren Boyes were tops for the Kates while Porky Martin led the embattled Redskin squad.

1942
Kingston Township won, 12-7. Dallas Township scored victories in 1941 and 1940 to obtain its only triumphs in the long series.
