Mr. and Mrs. Shad Goss Celebrate Fiftieth Wedding Anniversary

Mr. and Mrs. Shad Goss celebrated their fiftieth wedding anniversary November 20 with their children and grandchildren who surprised them with a lovely party at their Claude Street home.

A huge anniversary cake and yellow rosebuds and chrysanthemums, gift of the grandchildren, made an attractive and festive tea table. The couple received many lovely gifts and hearty congratulations.

Mrs. Goss is the former Sarah Wilkinson, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Wilkinson of Broadway. Mr. Goss is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Gwin Goss, Fairmont farmers.

The couple was married at Fairmont, November 1, 1901 where they started housekeeping with Mr. Goss helping his dad on the farm. About thirty years ago, when they tired of farm life, the couple moved to Kingston and Mr. Goss took up the plaster trade. Three years later they built their home on Claude Street and became permanent residents of the Back Mountain Area where Mr. Goss has built up a fine plaster contracting business.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Goss are members of the Dallas Methodist Church. Mr. Goss is serving his fifth term as Chief Sergeant of Arms at Harrisburg, is committee man for the Middle District of Dallas Township, and served one term as Dallas Township School Director.

There are three children: Basil, who lives right close to his parents on Claude Street; Mrs. Clarence Benscoter of Muhlenburg and William Gleason of Shickshinny; five grandchildren, Clarence Benscoter Jr., Muhlenburg; Shirley Reese, Baltimore, Md.; and Alva and Reva Goss and Elgene Benscoter of Wilkes-Barre; three great-grandchildren, two of them born Tuesday, twin boys to Junior Benscoter and Bobby Reese.

Present at the party besides all the children and grandchildren with their wives and husbands and Bobby Reese, were Mrs. Jennie Search, Mrs. Linson Bigler, and Miss Mildred Castner.
