Legion Auxiliary To Sponsor Drive

Daddow Isaacs American Legion Auxiliary is sponsoring a drive for sick room equipment in the Back Mountain Area, articles purchased to be given or lent to needy Back Mountain people.

This is how it works. Representatives of the Cromwell Collier Publishing Company will call at homes to sell their publications. A certain percentage of every subscription price will be turned over to the Auxiliary to buy supplies.

Representatives will carry identification letters signed by Mrs. Doris Brobst, president of the local auxiliary and by Mrs. May Peters, president of the Bi-County Council, in charge of the solicitation.

as Jenkins, Erie, and two grandchildren.

Born in Wilkes-Barre, she has lived in the Back Mountain for the past twenty-seven years, first in Trucksville for ten years, then in Shavertown.

Death was unexpected, though Mrs. Bartels had not been in rugged health of late. She was able to take a drive with her husband last Thursday.
