Dallas Senior Woman's Club Holds Annual Christmas Dinner Party

Dallas Senior Woman's Club enjoyed a dinner meeting at the Castle Wednesday evening. The party tables were colorfully decorated with holiday greens and candles.

Business consisted of taking up a collection for Christmas baskets, donating a ton of coal to a needy family and allotment of $300 to the Library. A dance will be held Saturday, February 9 to raise money for these causes.

The Club Choral entertained with Christmas selections after the dinner. Mrs. William Luksic spoke and demonstrated various flower arrangements which she presented to the club. The flowers were auctioned off.

Biagio Galletti Rites Today

Requiem Mass At Sacred Heart

Biagio Galletti, 70, resident of Lehman for twenty-one years, died Monday night at 11:45 after a year's illness.

Funeral services will be held from the home this morning at 9, from Sacred Heart Church, Luzerne, at 9:30. Following the requiem mass, burial will be in Italian Independent Cemetery, West Wyoming.

Mr. Galletti was born in Italy, within a hundred miles of the spot where his son Samuel lost his life May 24, 1944 during the Casino offensive in World War II.

Coming to this country forty-five years ago, Mr. Galletti settled first in Swoyersville for fifteen years, then in Luzerne.

He is survived by his widow, Mrs. Therese Galletti; four sons, Adam, Swoyersville; Martin, Pringle; Fred, Old Forge; and Frank, Luzerne; two daughters, Mrs. John Stolarick, at home, and Mrs. Brenda Venanzi, Bethlehem; a brother, John, Edwardsville; and twelve grandchildren.

Township Christmas Program Tonight

Tonight at 8 Dallas-Franklin Township students will present their annual Christmas program, an offering which is open to the general public as well as parents and pupils.

The program is arranged in five parts, beginning with selections by the brass choir; community singing with brass accompaniment; carols from other lands by mixed chorus with alto solo by Narcia Trimble; trumpet and trombone selections by Betsy Bunny, Robert Stair, and Donald Weidner; and in conclusion, an operetta by the elementary and primary school, "Old Crosspaten".

The operetta includes dancing and singing by lower grades, and features the third grade Rhythm Band.

There is a wooden-shoe dance, and selections by the first and second grade choruses.

Operetta co-ordinator is Mrs. Fred Hughey; costuming is in charge of Mrs. Bette Inomas, Miss Hilda Bredbenner, and Mrs. Sara Mitten.

Fourth Grade dance, Mrs. Walter Mohr and Miss Vernetta Butts; third grade band, Miss Frances Hupp and Mrs. Alice Yapie; second grade chorus, Miss Veronica Mius and Mrs. Helen Guyler; first grade chorus, Mrs. Theima Lamoreaux and Miss Evelyn Everard; accompanists, Rose Ann Patner, Kegna Kuen, and Ann Woickowski; staging, by Daniel Williams.

Cast includes Geraldine Letner, Clark Lewis, Connie Veitch, Lois Jane Carey, Biar Haddie, Mae Kingsbury, Donna Lee Brown, Jay Kiston, Thomas Goddard and Buddy Butler.
