Married Fifty Years

MR. AND MRS. GEORGE WILSON

Mr. and Mrs. George Wilson of Ruggles will celebrate their fiftieth wedding anniversary the day before Christmas with open house for their friends and neighbors from 2 until 5 o'clock and from 7 until 9.

Mrs. Wilson is the former Elida Case, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Case of Ruggles. Mr. Wilson is son of the late Mr. and Mrs. Hiram Wilson, also of Ruggles.

The couple was married in the parsonage of the Derr Memorial Church December 24, 1901 by the Rev. William J. Hill and went to housekeeping at Noxen where Mr. Wilson was a lumberman. Some time later they moved to Harveys Lake and took up farming. About seven years ago Mr. Wilson realized that the farm was too much for him and the couple moved to their present home at Ruggles.

There Mr. Wilson contents himself caring for chickens and a few outdoor chores. Mrs. Wilson keeps a mighty tidy house, bakes a delicious apple pie and pieces quilts for the grandchildren on the side. Both are members of the Ruggles Methodist Church and Mrs. Wilson is active in the W. S. C. S.

There is only one son, Everett of Center Hill Road but four grandchildren of whom they are very proud: Irene, now training in the Jefferson Hospital School of Nursing, Gladys and Jerry, students at Dallas Township School, and Karen, aged four.

No invitations have been issued for the party but they hope all their friends will drop in for a cup of tea and a pleasant afternoon and evening.
