Beaumont

By Mrs. William A. Austin
Phone H. L. 3424

The only high school team to have ever beaten Beaumont on its home floor is Falls-Overfield, who will play here Friday, December 21.

With the weatherman's cooperation most school students will enjoy their skates, sleds, and skis during their Christmas vacation which starts Friday, December 21, and ends Wednesday, January 2 at nine.

The Annual Christmas dinner served by the school cafeteria included turkey, dressing, cranberry sauce, carrots and peas, celery stick, mashed potatoes with giblet gravy, rolls, and fruit jello which were enjoyed by the entire student body and faculty.

Christmas programs and parties in all classrooms will climax the day's activities Friday.

Mrs. John Smith and daughter Deborah, have returned to Philadelphia.

Perhaps Mrs. Hicks could get "doe-nations" for those mince meat pies from the following who are cooking venison: Clayton Taylor, Glen Clark, Robert Hoyt, Nile Clark, Alfred Dymond, Melvin Crispell, Carlton Shupp, Rodney Traver, Billy Corby, Seldon Traver, and Carl MacDougall.

The William Arch Austins will have the faculty and their guests for a Christmas Party, Saturday, December 22.

Go to the Church of your choice to hear the Christmas programs to be given Sunday, December 23, at 7:30 by the Evans Falls Methodist Church, the Bowman's Creek Free Methodist Church, and the Beaumont Union Church.

Sweet Valley

Mrs. Albert Morris returned last Wednesday from General Hospital. She is making a good recovery.

Mrs. Elizabeth Smith celebrated her eighty-eighth birthday and Mrs. Hattie Edwards, her eighty-seventh at a wild turkey dinner at Mrs. Smith's home. Her nephew, Sam Bronson, shot the turkey. Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Cragle, Oakdale, were guests.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Jones and Mrs. Lillie Case, Edwardsville, visited Mr. and Mrs. Alva Case on Sunday.

Gloria Long is ill. Mr. and Mrs. Sterling Hoyt, Cambra, visited their daughter and son-in-law and family, Mr. and Mrs. Donald McHenry, on Thursday.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Atwood both have bad colds.

Mr. and Mrs. William Battison, Mountain Top, had Sunday dinner with Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Battison.

Thomas Jones is home again after being hospitalized for an injured eye, sustained when a piece of rock flew into it. He is still receiving treatment.

Idetown

By Miss Bess Cook

Requiem Mass Celebrated For William Toby, 86

William Toby, 86, resident of the Back Mountain since April when he moved from Wilkes-Barre to Jackson Road, Chase, to make his home with his nephew, Jacob Gabel, died Sunday night from complications of old age.

A member of St. Nicholas' Church, Mr. Toby was buried in the parish cemetery, Shavertown, after a requiem mass at St. Nicholas, celebrated by Rev. C. A. Staub.

Pallbearers were Thomas Beline, Donald Gabel, Francis Proeller, and Harold Gabel.

He is survived by two sisters, Mrs. Margaret Roberts, Truicksville; and Sister Agathona, Order of Christian Charity, Wilmette, Ill. There are several nieces and nephews.
