White Collar Girl

MARY TOMASCIK

Whether or not John Comer, Parish Street, who marries Mary Tomascik tomorrow will have his bride for long, depends somewhat on the outcome of the national white collar contest being sponsored by the Seaboard Finance Company. Mary, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Tomascik of Lincoln Drive, who has withstood elimination throughout the preliminaries, is one of the few contestants to reach the finals held Monday.

The winner will be known as the "Silver Queen" and will tour leading cities under the sponsorship of Seaboard Finance Company. Board Chairman William A. Thompson announced that Company is dedicating its 25th Anniversary to paying tribute to its own several hundred feminine employees and the approximately 6,000,000 other women working in offices. Miss Tomascik works in Seaboard's office in Wilkes-Barre.

The "Silver Queen" will be selected on the basis of appearance, charm, personality, intelligence and efficiency at her job by a group of Hollywood judges, who include Alan Ladd, Joan Fontaine, Wally Westmore and Bill Meikeljohn of Paramount Studios.

Noxen Students Visit County Business Places

Eighth grade pupils of Noxen under the direction of their teacher, Mrs. Martha Smith, enjoyed a full day visiting the Wyoming County Court House, the Endicott Johnson shoe factory, the Citizens National Bank and the locker plant at Tunkhannock last Tuesday.

At the Court House they had a personally conducted tour by Judge Farr, at the bank each was given a dollar and shown how to open his own saving account, at the locker plant they saw meat cut up, wrapped and placed in the freezing compartments and they followed a shoe from sheets of leather to the finished product at the shoe factory.

The trip, planned in its entirety by Ann Engelman, was made on the school bus, each student carrying his own lunch so that no time was wasted in restaurants.

Miss Shirley Jean DeReamer Is Bride of Robert Whitney

Miss Shirley Jean DeReamer, daughter of Daniel DeReamer and the late Ethel DeReamer of Sweet Valley, became the bride of Robert Whitney of Vestal, N. Y. Saturday evening at 7 p. m. Rev. Whitney, father of the bridegroom, performed the double ring ceremony in the Christian Church at Sweet Valley.

Maid of honor was Beverly Updyke of Plymouth, class mate of the bride, and Joan DeReamer, sister of the bride, and Sammy Ijms, another classmate, bridesmaids.

Best man was Kenneth Updyke and William Burchitt, usher. Both are classmates of the bridegroom. The bride given in marriage by her father wore white satin gown made with tight bodice, full skirt ending in train, high neckline and long tight sleeves pointed at wrist. Her full length veil fell from a crown of orange blossoms and she carried a bouquet of white roses and a white prayer book.

Miss Updyke chose peach colored satin and Miss DeReamer and Miss Ijms, blue organdie. All were fashioned like the gown of the bride. They carried Colonial bouquets of red and white carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held in the Church Hall and the couple left for Johnson City.

Mrs. Whitney is a graduate of Lehman High School. She is a student in the Baptist Bible Seminary in Johnson City. Mr. Whitney is also a student at the Seminary.
