Scouts And Brownies Plan Cookie Sale

Girl Scouts and Brownies are already taking orders for the cookie sale which starts March 8 and are determined to make this sale their biggest. From the 13 cents profit per box which goes to the Girl Scout Council, six cents goes into the troop treasury, seven cents to the Council for the camping program and council capital expenditures. The local Dallas District Girl Scout Board receives one dollar per troop from the cookie sale, with which to finance its operations. Mrs. Peter Clark has charge of the sale in the Dallas area, and Mrs. Oscar Dymond in the Trucks-ville and Shavertown vicinity.
