

Octogenarian Dies Suddenly

Mrs. Loveland, 84 Buried Wednesday

Mrs. Elizabeth Loveland, Orchard Knob Farm, dropped dead of a heart attack at her home Sunday night. She was buried in Maple Grove Cemetery following services at Bronson Funeral Home conducted by Rev. Ira Button.

Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Loveland had lived on the former Frederick Johnson farm for eighteen years, having moved from the Weiss place. They had been married for thirty years, seven years after the death of Mrs. Loveland's first husband, Philip Cease.

Mrs. Loveland, the former Elizabeth Heize, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Heize, Ruggles, took over the motherless home of Philip Cease at eighteen, first as homemaker and then as mother to the four small children, six, eight, ten and twelve years old.

In love with all living things, Mrs. Loveland has been vitally interested in gardening and small livestock all her life. Up until a

Lehman Hi-Y To See Film On Wrestling

With formation of the sixth Hi-Y and Tri-Hi-Y club through the Back Mountain Branch Town and Country YMCA at Lehman-Jackson High School, it may not be too long before "Y" officials can boast of 100% coverage in the four Back Mountain schools.

The newly formed Hi-Y Club at Lehman is merrily on its way. Recently elected officers are: William Rinker, president; Warren Major, vice president; Joel Root, secretary, and Lynn Ashworth, treasurer. William Snyder, a member of Lehman-Jackson faculty is Adult Counselor. This group meets every other Fri-short time ago she has had a garden every year and canned quantities of fruits and vegetables.

Her patch-work quilts have been distributed widely among her relatives. Several remain in her home, wrapped in blue paper to preserve their freshness.

She was an avid reader. Mrs. Loveland is survived by her husband, Isaac; three stepchildren, Mrs. Dinah Pollock, Lake Silkworth; Wilson Cease, Trucksville; and William Wellington, of Hamilton; 11 step-grandchildren and several nieces and nephews.

day at 12:55 p. m. The next two meetings will cover wrestling. A special movie on the subject has been secured for today's meeting and a local wrestling authority is being invited for the March 7 meeting. Narcotics, baseball, vocations and boy and girl relations are on the agenda for future programs.
