Wilma J. Robbins Marries Seaman Robert Gordon USN

At a very pretty candlelight service, Wilma J. Robbins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Robbins Jr., of Staub street, Trucksville, became the bride of Seaman Apprentice Robert Gordon USN, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Farnie of Newark, N. Y. and grandson of Mrs. Mary Gordon, Main road, Trucksville, Saturday night at 8 o'clock.

Rev. Robert Webster performed the double ring ceremony before an altar decorated with baskets of white gladioli and carnations flanked with palms.

Louie W. Ayre, at the organ, played "Spring Song," "Melody," "Aria," "Ariosa," "Cantabile," "O Perfect Love," "The Wedding Processional" and "Midsummer Night's Dream."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore ballerina length paneled gown fashioned with tight lace bodice, full nylon net skirt, high collar and long tight sleeves.

Her nylon net veil fell from a crown of pearls and she carried white carnations with satin streamers.

Jayne Perrin of Trucksville was maid of honor. She selected turquoise taffeta gown made like that of the bride, short sleeves and mitts. Her cap was of taffeta with a back veil and she carried light pink carnations. Little Leatha Farnie was her half brother's flower girl. She wore light blue organdie and wreath of flowers in her hair. She carried a nosegay of deep rose carnations centered with blue sweet peas.

Mrs. Robbins, mother of the bride chose navy taffeta trimmed with velvet, matching accessories, and yellow roses and blue sweet peas. Mrs. Farnie also wore navy with matching accessories and yellow roses and sweet peas.

Mrs. Gordon, grandmother of the bridegroom, wore black with turquoise trim and shoulder bouquet of pink roses.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride, and the couple left by motor for Vermont. For going away the bride chose gray suede dress trimmed with forest green and red roses.

Mrs. Gordon is a graduate of Kingston Township High School and has been employed at the Acme Store in Shavertown. Seaman Gordon is also a graduate of Kingston Township High School. He is stationed at Bainbridge, Md.

The bride will remain with her parents until her husband has completed his service with the Navy.

Hough of Briar Hill, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hough of Pittsburgh, Rev. George Hosler performed the ceremony in St. Mark's Reformed Church, Cressona before an altar banked with white snapdragons and carnations.

Mrs. John Fingley sang "Always", "At Dawning", "Because" and "I Love Thee". Mrs. Claire Rauch was organist.

Attendants were Mrs. Fern Minchhoff of Summit Station and Roy Twardefsky. Ushers were Earl Kerchener of Burndale and George Minkoff of Summit Station.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore white satin and net gown fashioned with tight bodice, full skirt and strapless neckline. She wore white satin cape and mitts. Her fingertip veil fell from a sweetheart shaped bonnet and she carried a Colonial bouquet of white carnations and ivy centered with a white orchid.

Mrs. Minchhoff selected mint green satin gown made like that of the bride, green maier hat and mitts. She carried a Colonial bouquet of yellow carnations.

Mrs. Karns, mother of the bride, chose black and white print with shoulder bouquet of red carnations and sister of the bridegroom, navy with yellow carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride and the couple left for Pittsburgh.

For going away the bride selected navy gaberdine suit with matching accessories and orchid corsage.

Mrs. Hough attended Dallas Borough School and was graduated from Cressona High School. She has been employed at the Scharadin Diner in Pottsville. Mr. Hough is stationed with the U. S. Army at Fort Meade. The couple will reside with the bride's parents.
