SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST

Seventh-Day Adventists of Beaumont will launch their annual In-gathering Appeal tomorrow according to H. C. Reading, church pastor.

The local church plans to reach its $400.00 goal in five weeks through a door-to-door solicitation campaign.

The funds are also used to carry on the denomination's mission program through 551 major institutions, including hospitals, schools, and publishing houses. More than 3,100 Adventist mission schools are in operation.

"Americans no longer dare ignore the suffering and ignorance that produce Communism's breeding places," the church leader pointed out. He quoted Dr. Charles Malik, Lebanon's minister to the United States:

"The work of American missionaries abroad is more important than diplomacy in expressing the desire of the American people for peace and plenty in the world. The hospitals and schools which the churches have built are the best evidence you have of your concern for the world."
