

News of the Churches

SHAVERTOWN METHODIST

Sunday, 9:45, Church School for all ages; 11:00, Nursery for pre-school children during Church Hour; 11:00, Church Worship Hour—Mother's Day, with special observance through music and sermon honoring our Mother's. There is no better way to honor Motherhood than by attending church. 6:30, Methodist Youth Fellowship, Election of Officers. 8:00, Couple's Club. Speaker: Mr. Roy Morgan of Radio Station WILK.

Monday, 3:30, Brownies; 8:00, King's Daughters Class Monthly Meeting in Chapel Room.

Tuesday, 7:00, Trustee board meeting in chapel room; 7:30, Boy Scouts, Troop 231; 8:00 Official board meeting in chapel room.

Wednesday, 3:30, Girl Scouts, Troop 66; 7:00, Girl Scouts, Troop 75; 7:45, Leadership Training school at Dallas Methodist Church; 8:00 W.S. C.S. Monthly meeting in social rooms. Installation of new Officers by the Pastor.

Thursday, 6:30, Junior Choir rehearsal; 7:30, Senior Choir rehearsal.

One Sunday in each year, the second in May, is dedicated to our mothers. Religious emotion and mother love are closely bound, for the latter is about the nearest approach, in this life, we have to the wonderful, compassionate love of God. There is no better way to honor Motherhood than by attending church on the day dedicated to our mothers.

For this particular Sunday, will you not invite some one who, because of age or infirmity, might otherwise be deprived of the service, to share your car and pew with you?

DALLAS METHODIST

Today (Friday)—The annual Mother-Daughter banquet will be held this evening at six-thirty o'clock.

Sunday, 10:00—Sunday school. Adults using the international lesson will discuss the theme, "What Shall We Do on Sunday?" (Scripture—Exodus 20:8-11; Mark 2: 27-28; Luke 4: 16 ab; 13:10-17). Other classes use lessons graded to interest and experience of the student. 11:00—Morning Worship. Sermon by the pastor. Special music by the choir. This is Mother's Day. Your presence in Church is one fitting way to honor your mother and her God. The meaning of Mother's Day will be the dominant theme of service. Pre-school children are cared for in the Church Nursery. Other boys and girls recess to the Junior Church before the sermon.

Monday, 7:30—Boy Scouts meet in Scout Room.

Thursday, 4:15—Junior Choir; 6:30—Youth Choir; 8:00—Senior

Young people interested in attending the Wyoming Conference Youth Weekend in Scranton, May 24th, and 25th, are urged to contact the pastor at once for reservations.

All notices for the bulletin and papers are due on Monday of each week.

Judge Frank L. Pinola gave a stirring address on the dangers that beset America, stating that we are not being pushed into socialism but we are being slid into it. He stated that England voted for socialism, but we are getting it by stealth. Judge Pinola explained the dangers of a centralized government and he urged everyone to take a greater interest in the affairs of government.

Winning Poster Displayed At Earl's Drug Store

Prominently displayed in the window at Earl's Drug Store are the six poster entries from Westmoreland which were exhibited in the "Our Town" contest staged at the Jewish Community Center on South River Street early in April.

Ray Demko's entry which was awarded first prize among posters submitted from schools all over Luzerne County, takes the spotlight.

Ray's poster, developed in vivid colored pencil, shows a housewife hanging clothes in the back yard, guarded by a determined husband with a shotgun, appearing in the doorway to threaten the foxes that are coveting about the yard.

Five other entries which were exhibited in the show are signed by John Roushey, Raymond Drake, Janet Stahl, Joyce Edwards, and Dorothy Teresinski, director of art for Dallas Borough-Kingston Township joint schools.
