Reports Over 400 Pounds Donated Library Auction Meat Committee

Over 400 pounds of meat has been promised the hard working meat committee for the annual Back Mountain Memorial Library Auction. Solicitors have contacted all Back Mountain stores, and some meat has come in through other committees.

An unexpected donation of ten pounds was reported through David Schooley, gift of George Dean, Shrine View.

Cash donations of over $100 will make possible purchase of still more meat, if the crowd warrants it.

Mrs. Clarence Butler heads the meat committee, with Mrs. Francis Ambrose and Mrs. William Klisch co-chairmen. Assisting in solicitation are Mrs. Robert Hale, Mrs. Ralph Flannigan, Mrs. Sheldon Evans, and Mrs. Robert Evans.

Mexican sauce will be made as it was last year in the Dallas-Franklin Township school kitchen, with Mrs. W. B. Allen in charge. The recipe is the one used by Mrs. Constanza Weir, Mary Weir's mother, now too ill to superintend. Use of the school kitchen is made possible by Mrs. Raymond Kuhner.

Ice-cream, donated by Al Bowman, is in charge of Mrs. Charles Wheaton Lee.

Mrs. Robert Bachman handles baked beans.

Mrs. W. H. Derolf is chairman of solicitation for potato salad.

Mrs. Charles Nuss and Mrs. Alden Wagner have lined up donations of coffee. Miss Agnes Gregson will have charge of iced tea, something new this year, though suggested on many previous occasions.

Two coolers have been secured, to insure cold drinks.

Mrs. Donald Clark will have charge of procurement of paper articles for serving; Mrs. Arthur Culver of supplies such as silverware.

Mrs. John Girvan will make signs for the stand.

Mrs. Fred Eck and Miss Patricia Reynolds, chairmen of workers, will announce their committee.

Mrs. Walter Elston is lining up the dairies for both plain and chocolate milk, and reports excellent cooperation. She is assisted by Mrs. Stanley Davies, Jr.

General chairman of refreshments is Mrs. Ralph Dixon, co-chairmen are Mrs. Dan Robinhold and Mrs. Milford Shaver.

Mrs. Dixon says that her committee has been working since early in April, with all workers appointed by the time of the Library Auction dinner early in May.

Though the auction does not start until 6:30 on the first day, July 10, the refreshment stand will be open for business early enough to handle the crowd.

Here Comes Help From Virginia

Chuck Harding, 9, lives in Virginia, but he has nonetheless made his contribution to the Library Auction, four hours of intensive work down in the basement of his grandmother's house on Pioneer Avenue.

With a can of black stove enamel placed in the center of a shiny new pie-tin to discourage spilling, Chuck painstakingly painted a small round heating stove and an iron fire-basket, taking out grates and disconnecting doors to get complete coverage.

It's a swell job, just the ticket for somebody's lake cottage.

JULY 4TH
INDEPENDENCE DAY

Is It Time For Another Declaration of Independence?

The men who wrote the first one struggled to put new ideas into simple words. Humbly, they tried to set down clearly certain rights of man that could be called God-given, and hard-to-say things of a spiritual nature—truth, equality, freedom.

And the words came alive, and the ideas shone clear. The idea that each man is more important than his government, his independence more precious than his security; his spiritual strength more lasting than his armies.

Upon these ideas, a nation grew great.

There are always people who fear such ideas—even today, even in America. These people feel that man cannot be trusted with his destiny. They are working to make government the master—instead of the servant—of the people.

Their distrust of the individual has spread frighteningly in the past few years.

It can be stopped by ideas—the same ideas spelled out in the Declaration of Independence.

Maybe it's time for all of us, privately and in public, to declare once again our independence—to speak for freedom, and against anything that threatens it.

THE TREND TOWARD MORE AND MORE GOVERNMENT CONTROLS IS A THREAT TO EVERY BUSINESS, EVERY FAMILY, EVERY INDIVIDUAL. THAT'S WHY WE BRING YOU THIS MESSAGE.
