Ruth Dolores Shrey Is Bride Of Edward William

Ruby Dolores Shrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Shrey, Orchard Street, Shavertown, became the bride of Edward William, Swoyerville, in a lovely wedding Saturday at 2. The Rev. Fredrick Eidem performed the ceremony in Saint Paul's Lutheran Church before an altar banked with white snapdragons and ferns. Ginny Stroud, soloist, sang "I Love You Truly" and "Because", accompanied by the organist, Thomas Hontz.

Maid-of-honor was Nancy Lozo, Shavertown, best man was Peter Fender, Swoyerville, and the ushers were Ralph Swan and Levo Kooher, Swoyerville.

The bride wore full-length white nylon and satin gown, cut with lace bodice, long sleeves, and a Queen Anne's collar. Her headdress was a Juliet cap and veil, and she wore her grandmother's pearls. She carried white carnations with a center of red roses.

Miss Lozo chose lilac gown and carried pink carnations with a center of pink roses.

Mrs. Shrey, mother of the bride, selected dress of pink and white lace and corsage of white carnations, while the bridegroom's mother, Mrs. William, wore a sheer Bemberg print, navy accessories, and pink carnations.

Following the ceremony, a reception for 125 guests was held at the Shavertown Fire Hall.

Miss Shrey attended Westmoreland High School and worked in the Wilkes-Barre Woolworth Store before the wedding. Mr. William attended Swoyerville High School and is working in the Natona Mill. The couple will reside on the Main Road, Trucksville.

Mr. and Mrs. L. E. Beisel, Meeker, have had as recent house guests Mr. and Mrs. William Beisel, Philadelphia, Mrs. John Exarhopoulos,

Newark, also a guest, will remain for two weeks with the new baby Carol Ann, grandchild of Mr. and Mrs. Beisel.
