

Committee Arranging Harveys Lake Festival

by James Kozemchak

Directing arrangements for the three-day Harveys Lake Festival, first social event of the combined parishes of Gate of Heaven, Our Lady of Victory and Queen of Peace of Dallas and Harveys Lake, are parishioners from the three Catholic churches in the Back Mountain region.

The event, listed for August 12,

13 and 14 at O'Connell's Twin Lakes, near Harveys Lake will include many novel features and an elaborate program.

freshment committee co-chairman; Miss Jessica Thomas, secretary; Rev. Francis A. Kane, honorary chairman; James Coates, chairman; Fred Youngblood, treasurer, and Paul Honahan, door committee.

Second row: Jack Donohue, refreshments; Andrew Sokol, games; Jack Lynch, games co-chairman; Joseph Simpson, children's entertainment; Myron Williams, co-chairman of the festival; Mrs. Elizabeth Wallo, refreshments; Mrs. Leslie Barstow, refreshments chairman; Mrs. James Duffy, refreshments; Mrs. Thomas Hudak, refreshments; Edward Buckley, grounds chairman and Mrs. John Schappert, solicitation co-chairman.

It Wasn't Just Any White Rabbit That Was Killed, But Very Special

John H. Lamoreaux, 42nd street, is feeling very badly about his dead rabbit. It wasn't just any rabbit that the pack of dogs caught and mangled, it was the last of the rabbits that Mr. Lamoreaux had given his grandson, Earl Lamoreaux, who was crushed by an overturned truck two years ago within a stones throw of Mr. Lamoreaux' home.

For the past three weeks, reports Mr. Lamoreaux, there have been predatory dogs running wild in the neighborhood. Three times they have broken into his rabbit runways. The last time, they tore down a heavy screen door, demolished a pen, and dragged out a beautiful white New Zealand rabbit, a 22-pound buck, registered and used for breeding purposes.

Mr. Lamoreaux thinks the dogs must be very large, as the rabbit warren would ordinarily have been perfectly safe.

In the same neighborhood Mrs. Thomas Kreidler lost a kitten, prey to dogs.

Mr. Lamoreaux says that it is well known that sheep-killing dogs will run for miles, and thinks that this may be a band of outlaws. It would be very easy to determine this, he is sure, if owners of dogs in the neighborhood would keep them confined for a few nights and wait for further results.

Summer Band School Enrolls Eighty

Enrollment of forty-one summer band students for the morning session and thirty-nine for the afternoon, has exceeded expectations at Dallas Borough-Kingston Township Joint Schools. More students are registering daily as they return from their vacations.

Schedule for the next four weeks is: Westmoreland High School, 10-12 AM, Mondays, Wednesday and Friday; Dallas Borough School, 1-3 PM, same days.

Majorities meet Tuesday and Thursday at Westmoreland.

Regular band members have three hours of practice each week, in addition to an hour of sectional rehearsal. There are fifteen beginners who get two special lessons per week.

Lester Lewis, Director of Instrumental Music, is planning two open-air concerts, one at Westmoreland, one at Dallas Borough school, during the third week in August.

Mrs. Minnie Cragle Burial Today At 2

Mrs. Minnie Cragle, 77, Hunlocks Creek, will be buried this afternoon in Casetown Cemetery following services conducted by Rev. Ira Buton from the home of her son, William Cragle, Loyalville.

Widow of James Cragle, Mrs. Cragle was born and raised in the Hunlock Creek area. She died Tuesday morning at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Ralph Farver, Benton RD, after an illness of two months.

Surviving are these children: Mrs. Laura Layaou, Hunlock Creek; Mrs. Emma McGovern, Luzerne; Mrs. Leatha Jones, Plymouth; Mrs. Freda Farver, Benton RD; Stewart, Hunlock Creek. There are eight grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Arrangements are by Alfred Bronson.

Idetown

Mr. and Mrs. J. Herbert Brown and daughter, Sharon, of Owenboro, Kentucky, returned to their home on Friday after spending the week with relatives and friends in the Back Mountain area. Ethel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. David Ide returned home with the Browns after spending the past year in Nashville, Tenn.

Mr. and Mrs. Homer T. Middleton and Homer Jr., spent the weekend at Wilmington, Delaware. While

Jack Goss Killed In Connecticut Crash

Jack Goss, husband of the former Betty Lancio, whose two brothers William and Hayward reside on Claude Street, Dallas, was instantly killed Wednesday morning on his way to work near New Haven, Connecticut, when the car in which he was a passenger was struck and demolished by a trailer truck. His companion was also killed.

Mrs. Goss, married over twenty years, and with a son Paul, 19, lived on Claude Street as a young girl, with her aunt and uncle, the late Mr. and Mrs. John Frank.

Robert Winters Flies To Waco, Texas

Robert Winters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Clare Winters, Claude Street, is standing by for probable officer's training in Waco, Texas. With a background of two years in electronics at DeForrest School Chicago, Winters took basic training at Sampson, and flew to Waco July 21. He enlisted in May.

IT WAS HER LUCKY DAY BUT SHE ALREADY HAS A GOOD REFRIGERATOR

When Mrs. Fred Evans' daughter from New York State won a Westinghouse refrigerator at Flannigan's Harveys Lake Bingo concession last week, she was stumped. It's a nice refrigerator, brand new, not yet out of the crate, but to Mrs. Evans it's excess baggage. Somebody is going to get a remarkable buy on that piece of heavy household equipment. It's down at Flannigan's Furniture store, waiting for somebody who has an instinct for bargains.

Rebecca Bible Class Plans Wienie Roast

Rebecca Bible Class, Beaumont, will hold a wienie roast at the home of Mrs. James Sickler tomorrow night at 7:30. Supplies will be charged to the treasury. A brief business meeting will follow supper.

there they saw the production of the "Mikado" by the Brandywine players in the Dupont gardens at Longwood.

Mr. and Mrs. W. Howard Crosby of Knoxville, Tennessee, arrived on Monday to spend the next two weeks with Mrs. Della Parrish. They will also visit other relatives and friends in the Back Mountain.

Services Saturday For Mrs. Mildred Freeman

Funeral services for Mrs. Mildred Freeman, Beaumont, will be held tomorrow afternoon at two from the Williams Funeral Home, Machell Avenue. Rev. Truman Reeves, Beaumont Union Church, will speak. Burial will be made in Evergreen Cemetery, Shavertown.

Mrs. Freeman, 49, died Wednesday at 12:30 PM in Wilkes-Barre General Hospital, where she had been a patient for three days, following a stroke on the preceding Saturday.

A native of Hagerstown, Md., daughter of the late George E. and Anna Hose Sponseller, Mrs. Freeman had lived in Kingston until they moved eleven years ago, to the farm between Beaumont and Kunkle. She was a member of Wyoming Avenue Christian Church Kingston.

She is survived by her husband, Edward A. Freeman; two children, Mildred Lillian and Harry E., at home; brothers and sisters, Mrs. Ruth Carey and Charles Sponseller, Kingston; Mrs. Bertha Stolz, Chicago; Mrs. Louise Miskel, Long Beach; Mrs. Elizabeth Peters, Wilkes-Barre; John Sponseller, Lehman; George Sponseller, Chase; and William Sponseller, Huntsville.

David Culver Dies After Long Illness

David Culver, 63, and in failing health for over a year, was buried Thursday afternoon in Carverton Cemetery following services conducted by Rev. Robert Wood and Rev. Robert Webster at the Russell Davis Funeral home, Luzerne.

Mr. Culver died Monday at noon, after twenty-three years on his farm in Carverton.

He had been able to put in this year's crops, but for the past several weeks his sons and sons-in-law had run the farm after their own work in the evenings. Mr. Culver raised a variety of garden produce for the Farmers Open Air Night Market.

The sons will continue with the harvest and do the family butchering in the late fall.

Mr. Culver is survived by his wife, Catherine; four children, Clifford, Luzerne; Mrs. Miles Shales, Bunker Hill; Mrs. Henry Switzer, Carverton; and Richard, at home. There are twelve grandchildren and two sisters: Mrs. Lillian Jones, Forty Fort, and Mrs. Grace Deets, Erie.
