Many Attend Service Welcoming New Bible

A capacity audience attended the observance of the completion of the Revised Standard Version of the Holy Bible held Tuesday night in Shavertown Methodist Church by Protestant Churches of the Back Mountain area.

Dr. Evald B. Lawson, president of Upsala College, East Orange, N. J., spoke on "The Word of Life in Living Language." He reviewed the history of the Bible, emphasizing the fact that the revision was historical in that it was the first time in 340 years that a translation of the Bible had been universally recognized.

The service was in charge of Rev. Robert DeWitt Yost, pastor of the host church, assisted by pastors of the visiting churches: Rev. Robert T. Webster, Trucksville Methodist; Rev. Frederic Eidam, St. Paul's Lutheran; Rev. Charles Frick, Huntsville Christian; Rev. William Heaps, Dallas Methodist; John F. Sheehan, lay leader for Prince of Peace Episcopal.

Music was provided by a choir composed of members of the choirs of the united churches with Mrs. Robert Wright, organist for the host church, at the organ.

Robert Lewis of Trucksville Methodist Church, chairman of the service, presented the new Bibles to five persons who in turn presented the Bibles to various libraries, as follows: Howard Risley, Back Mountain Memorial Library, with Mrs. Fred Howell acting for the library; Charles Nuss, Lehman School Board, to Lester Squier, supervising principal of Lehman-Jackson Township schools, for the Lehman-Jackson library; Rev. Ruth Underwood, pastor of Alderson Methodist Church, to George Taylor, supervising principal of the Lake-Noxen schools; James Godtfriing, head of the YMCA in Wilkes-Barre, to Raymond Kuhnert, supervising principal of Dallas-Franklin Township schools, for that library; Calvin Hall, executive of Wyoming Valley Boy Scout Council, who presented his Bible to James Martin, supervising principal of Dallas Borough-Kingston Township Schools, for the Westmoreland High School library.

Cancer Center To Open At Tea

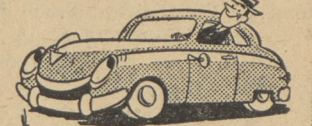

Formal Opening Planned Tuesday

Tea will be served 12-3 PM in Back Mountain Memorial Library Annex on Tuesday to inaugurate formal opening of the Cancer Information Center. Regular meeting hours for making dressings and dispensing information are announced for Tuesdays and Fridays, 10-3, in the Dallas Borough Council Room. Formal opening will take place in the main meeting room on the ground floor.

Mrs. Algert Antanaitis heads the tea committee; Mrs. Kenneth Rice is in charge of tea table decoration. Mrs. Fletcher Booker and Mrs. J. Stewart Williams will pour.

pal of the Lake-Noxen schools; James Godtfriing, head of the YMCA in Wilkes-Barre, to Raymond Kuhnert, supervising principal of Dallas-Franklin Township schools, for that library; Calvin Hall, executive of Wyoming Valley Boy Scout Council, who presented his Bible to James Martin, supervising principal of Dallas Borough-Kingston Township Schools, for the Westmoreland High School library.
