

SANDS' HOLSTEINS TAKE TOP PRIZES AT BLOOMSBURG FAIR

Top honors among eighty-nine exhibitors in the Holstein cattle show at Bloomsburg Fair were taken by Sands Farm Dairy of Carverton, owned by Ralph Sands.

For the third straight year the Sands Dairy was awarded first prize for the best Dairy Herd, four cows in milk.

Included among the twenty-two ribbons taken by the Sands exhibit of fourteen head of Holsteins was first prize aged cow, Mollie Belle Lyons, who took Senior and Grand Champion female of the show.

This cow has just completed a record of 818 pounds of butterfat and 19,542 pounds, of milk.

Among the ribbons won by the herd were four firsts; five seconds; one third; six fourths; three fifths; two sixths and one seventh. Among the firsts were best two-year old best aged cow; exhibitor's herd and dairy herd.

Second prize senior yearling bull exhibited by Hillside Farms, Trucks-ville, went to Sandsdale Ragapple Commando, recently sold to Hillside by Sands Farm Dairy. This animal exhibited with his sister from the Sandsdale herd took second prize produce of dam.

In conjunction with Hillside Farms, J. A. and W. D. Fairchild of Berwick and Sands Farm Dairy, Luzerne County won first place for the best county herd.

On Wednesday night of the Fair, sixty exhibitors attended the Stockman's Dinner at Bloomsburg Elks' Club.

This is the fifth year that Sands Farm Dairy has exhibited at Bloomsburg Fair and the first time that a Sands Holstein has taken Grand Champion.

Racing Ace Killed

JOHN COBBE, only man to drive an automobile 400 miles an hour, died minutes after he was pulled from his exploding, jet-propelled speed boat on Scotland's Loch Ness, home of the fabled monster. Witnesses said the craft blew up and broke into four pieces as the British champion sought a world hydroplane record. (International)
