Edward Line Is Celebrating Eighty-Sixth Birthday Today

Edward Line, Main Street, is celebrating his eighty-sixth birthday anniversary quietly with his wife, now seventy-eight, and his daughter, Mrs. Helen Walker who came from Valley Stream, L. I. for the occasion, today.

Mr. Line, son of the late John F. Line, associate judge of Sullivan County, lost his leg while crawling over box cars at Coxton Yards when a small boy. In spite of this handicap, he has always led an active and full life and has by no means settled down to be an old man now.

Retiring, after sixty-five years as a telegraph operator with the Lehigh Valley in Pittston, he came to Dallas nine years ago to be near his daughter, Mrs. Mildred Johnson. His delightful sense of humor and his wealth of railroad yarns have made him a good many friends in the area. He can be found most any day at the Lehigh Valley Station exchanging stories with Station Master Borton and reminiscing about some of their mutual railroad friends. Vitally interested in world affairs, he reads the daily papers and current periodicals and is a staunch admirer of Barnyard Notes in the Post.

Mrs. Line, just as active as her husband, has just finished her fall housecleaning. Evenings she crochets for the children and grandchildren and is very proud of her last quilt, "Trip Around the World" pattern.

There are six children: Mrs. Helen Walker, now their guest; Gordon of Daytona Beach, Florida, who has a thirty year old son, Major Eric Line, recently wounded with the U. S. Marines in Korea; Mrs. Joseph Ralston, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Harriet Mullen, Philadelphia; Mrs. Mildred Johnson, Wilkes-Barre, formerly of Dallas; Mrs. Margaret Blackburn, New Castle, Del., also eleven grandchildren.

Millie Ruth Blackburn Cavanaugh, New Castle, Del., just gave birth to their first great grandchild, Keith, whose Dad is in the service.

Lilt with "Naturalizer"

New miracle ingredient, "Naturalizer," used after Lilt's waving lotion

MAKES WAVE LONGEST-LASTING possible today, in the
SHORTEST TIME POSSIBLE

Compare Lilt WITH THOSE
NO-NEUTRALIZER WAVES!
SEE HOW MUCH FASTER LILT IS!

(Two girls start at same time—3 o'clock Saturday afternoon)

A LILT WAVE 1st step She started her Lilt at 3 o'clock. It took her only about an hour to finish the entire waving lotion step—including test curls! 2nd step She used "Naturalizer" to make her wave really permanent! Her wave is now finished... Now her hair is set in pin curls for her hairdo! LILT WAVE FINISHED—end hairdo styled too—in LESS THAN 2 HOURS! 4:52 o'clock	A NO-NEUTRALIZER WAVE 1st step She also started at 3 o'clock. Has wound curls and applied waving lotion; rinsed with water (or used towel to remove excess lotion). 2nd step (which may be news to you) Now she must wait 6 HOURS with her hair on curlers. (With No-Neutralizer products, you need slow drying on curlers.) STILL WAITING! She's worried now, because she has a date at seven! 2 HOURS GONE—5 MORE TO GO NO DATE FOR HER TONIGHT! She still has HOURS TO WAIT! 10 O'CLOCK—SECOND STEP FINISHED... 7 hours after she started! And LOOK at that kinky, frizzy hair—because it dried on the curlers! Now she has to re-wet her hair and set it in pin curls! But what she still does NOT know is—HER WAVE IS ONLY SEMI-PERMANENT! Won't last nearly as long as a Lilt.
