WHUM-TV Tower Is Higher Than Famous Eiffel

Located On Route 85 Tower Will Rise 1,000 Feet

Erection of the WHUM-TV (primary affiliate of CBS-TV) tower which will be higher than the famous Eiffel Tower in Paris, is well under way at Summit Station which is at the Berks Schuylkill line on Route 83. The Eiffel Tower is one of the Seven Wonders of the World. WHUM-TV's tower will be even higher. Arrangements have been made by the management of WHUM-TV and the State Police to handle large crowds who will be looking at the tower over the weekend. The tower is now 150 feet high.

The $250,000, 1036 foot tower is being erected by the same crew of riggers who last February erected an equally tall tower in Greenland. They are familiar with the difficulties encountered in extreme weather conditions. Fortunately, the weather conditions at Summit Station in Pennsylvania are not nearly so severe as in Greenland. The tower will be completed by November 15.

The WHUM-TV transmitter building will be a regular bomb shelter. 6" of reinforced concrete will be poured this next week for a roof. Big icicles falling from a thousand feet swirl in such a way to become as dangerous as an explosive artillery shell. The men and the $350,000 of transmitting equipment must be protected from falling ice. The ice can be blown a considerable distance and a fantastic amount of damage done unless the transmitter house is protected by a heavy steel reinforced concrete roof.

The WHUM-TV mobile unit will be in Hazleton at the Hotel Altamont for three days, October 27, 28 and 29. Then, on October 30 the $100,000 mobile unit will be at the Hotel Sterling in Wilkes-Barre. Over one million two hundred fifty thousand people in Eastern Pennsylvania have already seen the WHUM-TV mobile unit.

Television's biggest shows will be on WHUM-TV. The Ed Sullivan Show—Toast of the Town, Arthur Godfrey, and other top CBS-TV shows. WHUM-TV will carry the Comedy Hour Saturday night from 9 to 10 PM from NBC. An extremely long line up of daytime shows will also be on Channel 61.
