For Top MILK PRODUCTION and Long Cow Life

If you do not raise grain, you'll find Purina Cow Chow a fine complete ration for making lots of milk at low cost. Cow Chow contains a variety of crushed grains, proteins, minerals, and molasses. There's no need to feed extra grain. You feed from the bag with Purina Cow Chow.

... TRY THE PURINA DAIRY PLAN

Many dairymen hereabouts are finding that feeding the Purina Way helps them get excellent results. For instance, they'll tell you that a good milking feed, like Purina Cow Chow, helps keep up milk flow through the full milking year much better than ordinary feeds will do. Ask us for full information on Purina's famous dairy program.

Redskins See State Lock Horns With Rutgers Saturday, Score 7-6

BY FRED ROBERTS

Dallas-Franklin Township High School football team left for State College to see the Penn State-Rutgers game, by Martz bus at 8 a.m. Saturday, passing through Berwick, Bloomsburg, Lewisburg, Mifflinsburg and Aaronsburg. The latter gained world renown through its religious pageant. Arrived at State College, Sheldon Mosier, one of our teachers and an alumnus of Penn State, showed us around the beautiful campus and through the new gymnasium. Upon arrival at Beaver Field we watched the bands from the respective schools warming up. The game started with a push by State to the Rutgers twenty. Then the Rutgers stalwarts recovered a fumble and for the next three quarters it looked like an upset in the making. Rutgers scored on a twenty yard pass, but failed to make the decisive extra point. Until the last quarter Penn State looked like a prep team especially after missing three sure touchdown passes. Finally Penn State scored and succeeded in making the extra point that spelled victory. The game ended 7-6 in favor of State. We enjoyed the fine game and superlative band maneuvers between the halves. Following members enjoyed the game: Thomas Riaubia, Nelson Conden, John Godek, William Hartman, Carl Gries, William Schlittler, Earl VanCampen, Bill Miller, Conrad Higgins, Shep Moore, James Haddie, Roy Meeker, Darryl Dickson, Walter Franch, David Goddard, Tom Goddard, Karl Landmesser, Sammy Fowler, Donald Eckert, Ted Macknik, Arthur Belles, Tom Williams, Joe Hardik, Gene Sedler, Fred Roberts, Dick Harris, Danny Richards, Fred Gansel, Jack Yaple, Roy Carr. Faculty members: John Rosser, Robert Thomas, Robert Dolbear, and Sheldon Mosier.
