Karl Squier Is Six

Karl Squier, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Squier, Lehman, celebrated his sixth birthday with a birthday party in the first grade at school on Monday, and had as dinner guests on Tuesday his teacher, Mrs. Forest Kunkle and her husband. Thirty-two children enjoyed ice-cream, cake and popcorn. School celebration was arranged one day in advance because of the big Thanksgiving dinner on Tuesday in the cafeteria.

Alden LeGrand To Enter University Next Semester

Alden A. LeGrand, discharged from the Marines on October 8, plans to enter University of Southern California next semester. He and his wife, the former Adelia Sparks, a native of Los Angeles, will establish residence there before school opens. He will take up an engineering course. His tour of duty in the Marines entitles him to forty-eight months of college training.

Library Lists New Book Club Books

Recently placed on the Book Club shelves in Back Mountain Memorial Library are fifteen books, the selection including mysteries, period pieces, autobiography, fiction, historical novels, and romance.

"Fill 'Er Up," by Bellamy Partidge, recalls the early days of automobiling, written in his usual amusing manner.

"Valse Macabre," Kathleen Knight; "Ladies' Bane," Patricia Wentworth; and "The Sunburned Corpse," A. Knight, are the new whodunits.

"The Nine Wrong Answers," by John Dickson Carr (Carter Dickson) is a top-notch mystery, guaranteed to keep the reader guessing until the very last page.

"Mrs. Tom Flies Home," D. C. Stevenson, contains all the minor crises familiar to his readers.

"The Tender Age," Thatcher, shows an adolescent boy growing up over one weekend.

"The Curve and the Tusk," by Stuart Cloete, is a story laid in India, its charm, tenderness, horror and humor mingled.

"The Juniper Tree," for readers who like Faith Baldwin's novels.

"The Bicycle Rider in Beverly Hills" is a bit of youthful autobiography by William Saroyan.

"Queen's Gift," Inglis Fletcher, is another in a series of novels of Carolina, beginning with "Roanoke Hundred."

"My Island Home," is by James Hall. It has been selected as a memory book for Mrs. Champlain.

"The Great Enterprize," is by H. A. Overstreet.

"Your Committee in Community Action," C. King, is self-descriptive.

"The Giant," is Edna Ferber's latest novel, with scene laid in Texas.

"The Wonderful Country," Tom Lea, classifies as historical fiction.

Shavertown Auxiliary Plans Christmas Party

Shavertown Branch, Nesbitt Hospital Auxiliary, will hold a combined Christmas party and business meeting December 5, at 2 P.M., in Back Mountain Memorial Library Annex with Mrs. William Bond presiding.

Mrs. Theodore Baker, program chairman, announces that Mrs. Edna Gilroy will give a Christmas reading, and the membership will sing Christmas carols. Fifty cent presents will be exchanged.

Mrs. Howard Appleton and Mrs. William Numlist will serve on the reception committee.

Mrs. Charles Behee, chairman of serving committee, announces her committee for December: Mrs. Elmer Fry, chairman; Mesdames Russell Frantz, John Girvan, Albert Groblewski, J. H. Gabel, Zel Garinger, Raymond Greenwood, Frank Garris, Peter Gallegher, James Goddard, William Griffith, Edward Gilroy, G. H. Howell, and Miss Lina Garinger.

Annual School Dinner

Annual Thanksgiving dinner, turkey and all the fixings, was served Tuesday noon at Lehman-Jackson School.
