Robert Laux Is Exclusive Agent

Will Handle Ten Northeast Counties

Robert Laux, who since January 1 has been contacting Back Mountain schools in the interest of student insurance, was appointed last week as exclusive agent for ten counties in Northeastern Pennsylvania, by World Insurance Company, to place advantages of student coverage before school principals and Parent Teachers Associations.

Mr. Laux, Midland Drive, in the insurance business for eighteen years, will handle schools in Luzerne, Lackawanna, Carbon, Sullivan, Susquehanna, Wyoming, Columbia, Wayne, Schuylkill and Monroe counties. Student insurance is something fairly new in this territory, but has been common in South Carolina where it first started six years ago.

Kingston Borough has embraced the idea, several Wilkes-Barre schools are considering it. In the Back Mountain, Dallas-Franklin Township and Lehman-Jackson are protected; Lake-Noxen already had another type of coverage. Dallas Borough-Kingston Township joint schools, at request of the PTA, considered student insurance at its January board meeting.

In brief, Mr. Laux said, protection is given during school hours, on the way to and from school, and during school sponsored activities. Injuries received in any school sport except football are provided for.

Parents pay a premium of $1.25 per child for a twelve month period.

Parent Teachers Associations are interested in the project, and arranging to line up enough parents to take advantage of this unique group insurance. The company specifies no definite proportion, but hopes for fifty per cent of enrollment to spread the risk.

Raymond Kuhnert, supervising principal of Dallas-Franklin, says that the thing which pointed up necessity for such a plan in his school, and made parents realize the benefit, was an accident early in the school year when a student broke his arm and parents were liable for considerable expense.

Evangelist To Visit Kingston

REV. HAL WEBB

A two weeks Evangelistic campaign beginning Monday night, and running through Sunday, March 1 will be conducted in First Baptist Church, Kingston. Rev. Louis Falk, pastor, will be in charge of the services.

The Evangelist will be the Rev. Hal Webb well known American Evangelist and Youth leader. Mr. Webb is member of the Youth for Christ International Evangelistic Staff. He is a graduate of Bob Jones University. He served in the Army during World War II with Patton's tank forces in Germany. After the war he served in Manila where he became director of the G. I. Gospel Hour and Youth for Christ Program in the Philippines.

Mr. Webb has conducted Evangelistic campaigns through the South and in many Northern States. Some of his meetings were held in the Fort Hill Stadium in Cumberland, Maryland. He also conducted a meeting in the Outdoor Bowl in Miami, Florida, where he preached to thousands. He is considered a fearless, dynamic young preacher.

Services will be held every night at 7:30, with two services on Sundays at 10 AM and 7:30 PM. Two great Youth Rallies will be held on Saturday nights when Mr. Webb will introduce some of his Gospel Magic. Special musical talent will provide the singing each night. Chorus choir will be organized. Various pastors of the valley will assist with the music. Prayer meetings will be held each morning at 10:00. Rev. and Mrs. Webb travel in a 26-foot trailer in which they will live during the meetings.
