BURGESS ASKS SCHOOL CHILDREN TO HELP HIM FREE STREETS OF DOGS

Burgess Herbert A. Smith in his campaign against running dogs has asked all school children who value their pets not to allow them to follow them to school.

"Don't let your dog or a dog whose companionship you enjoy get into trouble because of your thoughtlessness" the Burgess said.

"If your dog is loyal to you and thinks enough of you to follow you to school, you should protect him. See to it that he is returned home and kept there on leash."

"We don't want to see any boy lose his pet or have his parents pay a fine, but for the protection of everybody we must see that no dogs are allowed to run the streets."

"State agents will be here to clear the town of running dogs, don't let yours be one of them."

Six Brush Fires At Harveys Lake
