Parade Entries Promise Variety

Sweet Valley Says Register Early

Alfred Bronson, chairman of Committee of Entries for Sweet Valley's Annual Memorial Day Parade, urges that all entries be reported as early as possible. Churches, lodges, school bands, business floats, and fire companies, horse-men and comics are welcome. Antique auto owners are specially urged to enter.

George Bronson, chairman of Displays, states that space is available for showing of new cars and of farm machinery, and asks that arrangements be made as soon as possible for such space.

Sherman Kunkle, Parade Chairman, says that this parade promises to be the largest and most colorful, outranking all previous parades in variety of entry.
