Easter Lilies On Fourth

Mrs. B. G. Laskowski, Trucksville RD, will have twenty-four Easter lilies in bloom for the Fourth of July. She gave the plants a rest after Easter, started watering them again, and is getting a second crop.

Plan X-ray Program

Wyoming Valley Tuberculosis Association plans to conduct a mass X-Ray survey in the Back Mountain Area for three weeks starting September 23. Portable X-Ray equipment will be stationed on different days at each church from 4 until 8 p.m. and X-Rays will be taken by congregational groups.

BRONSON GIVES PURE BRED HOLSTEIN CALF TO LIBRARY AUCTION

A pure bred registered heifer calf from the Hill Top Farm herd at Sweet Valley has been given to Back Mountain Memorial Library Auction by Alfred Bronson, Back Mountain Funeral Director.

The Bronson Holsteins are among the top herds in Luzerne County Dairy Herd Testing Association and the calf will have her registration papers with her when she goes over the Auction Block.

James Huston of Huston's Feed Service at Fernbrook has offered to put the calf on a six-week's Purina Feeding program as his contribution to the Auction, so whoever buys her will be assured that she gets the proper start in life.

Maple Grove Has New Minister

Circuit Has Been Without Pastor

Rev. LaVerne Proctor, a prospective student at Drew Theological Seminary, will assume his duties at the Maple Grove Charge on Sunday, July 12, moving into the parsonage two days in advance.

Maple Grove, Meeker, Loyalville, and Mooretown have been without a pastor since resignation of Professor Everett Lord early in the season.

Rev. Proctor will serve his charges during the weekends after start of school in the fall. Mrs. Proctor will be constantly in residence in the parsonage with the three children: Constance, 7, Linda, 5, and Paul, 4.

The new minister is from Wattsburg. He graduated from Corry Schools, graduated from Houghton College, did graduate work at Geneseo State College, taught two years in Wayne Township, and served as supply pastor at Lake Pleasant, Service in the Army included a station in Italy.

His wife is the former Rose Bayles, Clymer, N. Y.
