

Plan Summer Band School

Lewis Will Direct Six Weeks Program

Summer Band School sponsored by Dallas Borough-Kingston Township Joint School District will begin Monday, July 20th and continue each day for the next six weeks. Since the school is a community project, anyone regardless of school or age, is invited to participate. The complete program will be under the direction of Lester R. Lewis.

A varied and interesting program has been planned which covers all phases of instrumental music and twirling. There will be regular classes for both the beginners and the advanced players. Twirlers, regardless of age or ability, are urged to come out and be part of this summer program. Three full band rehearsals are planned for each week. Two concerts will be held—the places and dates to be announced later.

All students who wish to enroll should report to Westmoreland High School at 10:00 a.m. or to Dallas Borough School at 1:00 p.m. Band members are asked to bring their instruments for a short rehearsal. Others will receive their schedule of lessons for the summer session.

"This summer program," Mr. Lewis said, "offers our young musicians an excellent opportunity for advancement on their instruments. Let us have a good attendance throughout the program so that our final concerts will be of the very best."

Antique Frames, Feature Of Show

Six antique picture frames purchased at the Library Auction by members of the Friendship Class of Lehman Methodist Church are being refinished by members and fitted with shadow box backs for entry in the seventh annual Lehman Flower show to be held August 15.

The class, a new feature of this year's show, will depict "Harvest Moon," "Sunset" and "Thunder Storm," two interpretations of each. No accessories will be allowed.

Theme of this year's show, "Vacation," will be carried out in the entire show.

Mary Jane Tryon

Mary Jane Tryon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Tryon, West Dallas, leaves today, accompanied by her mother, for the famous Steel Pier at Atlantic City, where she will fill a week's singing engagement.

Last year she won, through a competition staged by station WILK, a trip to the Steel Pier and a one day's engagement. This year it is a tribute to her proficiency that she is a regular member of the Tony Grant show.

The Dallas-Franklin tenth-grade student has appeared in the Student Prince production staged by Little Theatre of Wilkes-Barre, and is well known for her solo work. For the past five years she has been a student of Mrs. Justine Shircliff, College Misericordia. She expects to enter Juillard School of Music in New York after graduation.

Rebekah Streng Nicholson Is Bride Of Robert Malkemes

Trinity Episcopal Church in West Pittston was the setting on Saturday afternoon, July 11, at four o'clock, for the marriage of Miss Rebekah Streng Nicholson, daughter of Mrs. Charles Everett Nicholson, 118 York Avenue, West Pittston, and the late Doctor Nicholson, to Robert Furcron Malkemes, Lieutenant, junior grade, United States Navy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Peter M. Malkemes, of Trucksville.

The church was decorated with clematis ferns and palms, with white snapdragons and gladioli on the altar.

The ceremony, performed by the rector, the Reverend Walter C. Eastburn, was preceded by a violin and organ recital, given by Mr. and Mrs. Louis Savitt. A reception was held in the bride's home.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Charles Everett Nicholson, Jr., wore gown of imported Swiss organdy frosted with hand-clipped Swiss applique and fashioned with an abbreviated off-the-shoulder neckline and a full skirt with a chapel train over taffeta. Organdy gauntlets cuffed with Swiss applique were worn. Her finger-tip veil of silk illusion was attached to a coronet trimmed with seed pearls and she carried a swing bouquet of white geraniums, orchids, and nylon illusion. Also carried was a Battenberg lace handkerchief made by the bride's grandmother and carried by her mother and sister at their weddings.

Mrs. Quentin R. Fehr, of Blue Bell, Pa., was her sister's matron of honor. Maid of honor was Jean Robbins, of Kingston, and bridesmaids, Janet Neubeiser, of St.

Charles, Mo., and Mrs. John F. Brewer, Jr., of Wilkes-Barre. The attendants were dressed alike in waltz-length gowns of white imported Swiss organdy with deep-hemmed skirts and fichu jackets fastened with emerald green velvet belts. They wore hats of emerald green velvet tied with red geraniums and carried swing bouquets of red geraniums held with green velvet.

The bridegroom's brother, Keith Malkemes, of Trucksville, was best man. Ushers were Edgar A. Luce, Lieutenant, junior grade, U.S.N.R., of Newport, R. I.; Anthony Bartuska, Lieutenant, junior grade, U.S.N., of Nanticoke; and Anthony Slavis, of Troy, N. Y.

On their return from a wedding trip to Vermont, the couple will reside in Newport, R. I., where Lieutenant Malkemes is stationed aboard the destroyer U.S.S. Perry. Mrs. Malkemes' going-away outfit was a pink linen sheath dress with a matching mandarin duster. Mrs. Malkemes is a graduate of Wyoming Seminary and Vassar College. She has been a member
