

Sweet Valley

The Dallas Post was in error last week in announcing Albert Allen's birthday. It was Mr. and Mrs. Allen's eleventh wedding anniversary. Please forgive us.

Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Ide, Roslyn, N. Y. spent Wednesday night with Mrs. Lewis Atwood and daughter, Mrs. Mae Davenport.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Davenport Jr., have returned from a wedding trip to New York. They will reside on Main Street, Nanticoke.

Miss Grace Croop, Washington, in Sweet Valley for the Jones-Davenport wedding, remained for a few days to visit her cousins, Mrs. Richard Davenport, Sr. and S. A. Pollock.

Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin Rood, Snow Hill, Maryland, are spending a week with Mr. and Mrs. Carl Rood.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Long and family spent the weekend in the Adirondacks, seeing White Face Mountain and the North Pole.

Miss Marjorie Downing, Broadway, and Jay Long, spent a day last week in Bloomsburg at State Teachers College.

Sunday visitors at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Alva Case were Pearl McAllister, Scranton; Mrs. Lily Case, Mrs. Richard Jones and son, Clifford; Mr. and Mrs. Elias Tice, Jacksonville; Donald Case, Pearl River; Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Switras, and Mrs. George Switras, Broadway.

Mr. and Mrs. William Carey and son Kenny, Coudersport, are spending a few days with Miss Bess Kline-tob.

Ages of elderly women present at a Sunday dinner given by Mrs. Carl Rood for Mrs. Hattie Edwards totalled 691 years. Mrs. Edwards celebrated her eighty-ninth birthday. Guests included Mrs. Corey Allen, Mrs. Annie Wintermute, Mrs. Edith Allen, Mrs. Jennie Thomas, Mrs. Elsie Wesley, Mrs. Eliza Whitesell, and Mrs. Elizabeth Smith.
