

Top Drivers To Race At Bloomsburg Fair

Auto racing fans will be given a treat at the Bloomsburg Fair this year when the first Grand National Circuit stock car race will be held over its half-mile track. A field of the nation's most daring drivers and fastest cars will be entered in the event, which is staged on Saturday afternoon, October 3.

These drivers represent nearly every type of American stock car, and all entries must be a 1950 model or later, which insures good equipment and dependable racing. Several foreign make cars have asked permission to enter this event, but it has not been decided yet by the sanction group whether they will be allowed to compete.

The afternoon's racing gets underway with individual time trials for positions and is followed by the feature event, a 100-mile, 200-lap race, the longest by far ever attempted on the Bloomsburg Fair track.

Among entries received at this early date are Joe Eubanks, Spartansburg, S. C.; Charley Dyer, North Bergen, N. J.; Jimmy Le-wallen, Archdale, N. C.; Al Keller, Green Acres City, Fla.; Lloyd Moore, Frewsburg, N. Y.; Bobby Myers, Winston-Salem, N. C.; John Roberts, Odenton, Md.; Jimmy Reed, Tarrytown, N. Y.; Jim Paschal, High Point, N. C.; Ronnie Kohler, Paterson, N. J.; Ken Marriott, Baltimore, Md. Many more entries are expected and a field of at least forty speed-hungry late model stock cars is assured.

Sordoni Makes Room For Club Value Shop

Senator Andrew J. Sordoni is permitting use of rooms above the Harveys Lake Light Company for Dallas Woman's Club current project, the Value Shop. Garments are at present in the rear of the second floor, but will be moved on October 1 to the large front room. The arrangement was made because of the non-profit character of the undertaking, receipts going to support various civic enterprises of the club.

Items for sale were moved from Back Mountain Library Annex to the new quarters on Church Street on Saturday, trucking facilities were furnished by Herman Thomas and Dyke Brown, man-power by Bud and Ralph Snyder.

Value Shop will open today, 10 a. m. to 9 p. m. Clothing for sale will be received. The committee asks that no garment over three years old be submitted. Clothing must be either dry-cleaned or freshly laundered. Hats and shoes are not acceptable.

Mrs. Herman Thomas will take Mrs. Charles Lee's place as chairman. Co-chairmen are Mrs. Byron Cressy, Mrs. William Pethick, Mrs. Sheldon Evans, Mrs. Harry Ohlman, Mrs. Archie Perry, Mrs. Douglas Hodgson, Mrs. W. B. Allen, Mrs. Michael J. Bevan.

Mrs. Harris Haycox General Chairman

Mrs. Harris Haycox is general chairman of the all day meeting scheduled for October 1 at Irem Temple Country Club, of Luzerne County Federated Woman's Clubs. Awards won by Luzerne County clubs during the year 1952-1953, will be on display at this meeting as well as at the September 18 convention of the Northeast District of thirteen counties at Keystone Academy, Factoryville. Awards include three for literature won by Mrs. T. M. B. Hicks, Dallas Woman's Club.

Mrs. Edward Brown, Wilkes-Barre, will preside October 1, and it is expected that many members of both Dallas Seniors and Juniors will attend. Mrs. Hicks has been asked to give a resume of a short story entered in the literary contest last February, appearing on the early afternoon program. Sessions will start at 10 a. m., include luncheon, and close at 4 p. m.

by BILL GUYETTE

The importance of the supporting players on a big TV show certainly can't be over-estimated. Lucille Ball and Desi Arnaz are the first to give a lot of credit for their show's success to their "neighbors" and landlords, Ethel and Fred. Jackie Gleason recently ly gave point to the value of Art Carney, who plays a half-dozen or so character roles with Gleason. Plans were under way to transfer the Gleason hour to the CBS TV city in Hollywood, but Carney balked at the move, preferring to stay in New York. Rather than lose Carney, the show will stay in the East for its origination.

Everybody wants Frank Sinatra for TV now, his first appearance being on the opening fall showing of Milton Berle. And NBC is trying to sign the singer up for a new show of his own. Reason for the sudden interest is Sinatra's big click in the movie, "From Here to Eternity," in which he has a non-singing role.

The "All Star Revue" will definitely spell "Your Show of Shows" once a month this season, and Martha Raye has been signed for three editions of the show. With "I Love Lucy" off the air for the summer, Arthur Godfrey captured No. 1 ratings on both radio and TV when he went back on the air. And you'll give a number one rating to your TV set when it's a fine new DUMONT, from our large stock, at
