Mr. and Mrs. Ira Frantz Celebrate 50th Anniversary

The home of Mr. and Mrs. Ira Frantz of Orange was the scene of much reminiscing and friendly visiting a week ago Monday when old friends and neighbors gathered to wish the couple well on their fiftieth wedding anniversary.

The Frantzes were married at Sidney, N. Y. by the Rev. Clark Calender, a former pastor of theirs. Mrs. Frantz is daughter of the late Nelson and Priscilla Kithline Ace, and Mr. Frantz, son of the late Jackson and Philena Smith Frantz, prosperous Orange fruit growers.

The couple went to house keeping in the family homestead at Orange now the Herbert Atkins fruit farm, and raised and sold peaches, plums and apples for the next forty odd years. There were no children. Six years ago they moved to a smaller home on Demunds Road and Mr. Frantz went into the real estate business—and as a hobby raises peaches, plums and apples!

Mrs. Frantz who used to help some in the orchards, now confines her activity to canning what Ira grows. She is active in Orange Methodist Church organizations and is a charter member of the Harmony Neighborhood Club which presented the couple with a lovely bouquet of chrysanthemums on the anniversary.

Open house was held all afternoon and late into the evening on the fourteenth when friends dropped in with gifts and congratulations and Rev. Robert Wood made a few appropriate remarks on the part the Frantzes had played in the community.

Calling during the day were: Mrs. Ella Carle, Mrs. Herbert Atkins, Mrs. George Brague, Mrs. Charles Townsend and son Jeffrey, Mrs. Bayden Roderick, Mrs. George Berlew, Mrs. Herald Shupp and daughter, Donna, Mrs. Russell Race, Mrs. Henry Phillips, Mrs. Byron Kester, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Ace, Mrs. Maude Lampman, Mrs. William Rozelle, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Carle, and grandson, John, Mr. and Mrs. Ray Shiber, Thais Rozelle, Mr. and Mrs. Leroy Andress, Mrs. W. E. Schoonover, Mrs. Willard Race and daughter, Deborah, Miss Dorothy Race, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond O'Donnell, and son, Ray, Mr. and Mrs. William Perrego, Mr. and Mrs. Morris King, Mrs. Bertha Craig, Mr. and Mrs. John Perry, Mrs. Nora Dymond, Mr. and Mrs. Laird Stanton, Mr. and Mrs. George Schallenberg, Mr. and Mrs. Bishop, Howard Craig, Rev.
