

Legion Captures Leg On Play-Off

Meets Jenks Again Sunday At Beaumont

Sunday's game at Beaumont saw the Legionnaires win over Jenks 5 to 3.

Both teams played nice ball with Dallas taking the lead in the first inning scoring an unearned run. Another run came in the second when Ken Grose singled and scored on a hit-and-run play after Tommie Reese's line drive to center was momentarily bobbled; Tommie taking second on the throw in.

Dallas scored three more in the fifth, all earned. Dick Searfoss led off with a single and scored on Bobbie Roberts' double to center; Harry Grose tripled, scoring Dick, and Harry tallied on Pat Salansky's infield out, second to first.

Jenks scored in the sixth when Jim Brody was safe on a slow roller to third. He took second when Pat's throw was bad. Sunny Martin then walked Pilger, and both runners advanced as Patton grounded out, pitcher to first. Martin then struck out A. Patton and appeared to be out of trouble as he pitched carefully to Smith, but Smith connected with a low outside pitch driving in both runners. Bigelow closed out the inning by grounding out third to first.

Jenks added another tally in the eighth on Pilger's perfect bunt after Jim Brody struck out. Martin walked R. Patton. A Patton then hit into what looked like an easy double play but R. Patton tangled up Ken Grose just long enough at second so that Ken's relay to first was not in time for the double killing; Pilger scoring on the play. Smith closed out the inning by grounding out to the pitcher.

Martin and Graham each pitched good enough ball to win but the breaks of the game went to Dallas and the breaks will decide any good close game.

By mutual agreement, weather permitting, the play-offs will be a best out of three instead of a single game as previously advertised. The second game will be played next Sunday at Beaumont Field—game time 2:00 p.m.

Albert Siperko Lies In Maple Hill Cemetery

Albert Siperko, Sr., Centermoreland, was buried in Maple Hill Cemetery Tuesday afternoon, following services conducted by Rev. Frederick Eidam, pastor of St. Paul's Lutheran church, of which Mr. Siperko was a member.

Mr. Siperko, 50, died at his home Saturday afternoon. Son of Mary Martin Siperko and the late Matthew Siperko, he was born in Wilkes-Barre Township, and moved to Centermoreland in 1934. He was a former employee of Lazarus Department Store.

He is survived by his widow, the former Sophia Pointek, of Wilkes-Barre, and eleven children: Albert, Jr., West Wyoming; Bernard, U. S. Navy, aboard U.S.S. Skylark; John M., Philip, Gerald, Sophia, Jean, Elizabeth, Mary Joan and Anne Marie, at home; Mrs. Glen Denmon, Beaumont; his mother, Millersville, Md.; a brother, Lewis, Millersville; sisters: Mrs. Mary Morgan, Wilkes-Barre; Mrs. Nicholas Campanelli, Brooklyn; Mrs. William Thomas, Lyndwood; and five grandchildren.

Victim Of Accident Was Buried Friday

Zigmund Balavage, '53, resident of Vernon, was buried Friday, in the Pringle parish cemetery, following a requiem mass in St. Mary's at 9.

Mr. Balavage, on his way home from work at Woodward Colliery, was instantly killed Tuesday afternoon at 5 when his car struck a parked car and hurtled over an embankment on Route 292.

A native of Lithuania, Mr. Balavage had lived in Vernon for thirty-one years. He leaves a mother, Mrs. Marcella Balavage; a sister, Mrs. Edward O'Malley, Pringle, and a brother, Albert, at home.

Newcomer To Area Dies On Sunday

Stephen Stelma, for the past six months a resident of Dallas RD 3, died at his home on Sunday. He had been a resident of Exeter for fifty years, after coming to this country from Europe, his birthplace. A requiem mass was celebrated at St. John's Slovak church, Pittston.

He leaves ten children, among them Margaret and John at home, and Joseph, Centermoreland; two brothers at home, Adam and Michael; and thirteen grandchildren.

On the refreshment committee are Mrs. Verne Groff, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Updyke, Mr. and Mrs. Fay Hopkins, Jr., Mesdames David Lees, Leslie Tinsley, Sheldon Mosier, Melvin Mosier, Sr., James Knecht, Roland Klisch, John Yearick, Karl Landmesser.

Dallas Hardware Sets Up Its Annual Hunting Scene Window

Dallas Hardware Supply set up its annual hunting window this week featuring many new mounted animals. One of these innovations is a white squirrel loaned by Ole Terry, Evans Falls. Another is a white crow shot by Mrs. Arlean Bowman's mother-in-law. New to the window also is the timber-rattler skin.

Ralph Rood has loaned his bobcat, duck and fox, Ray Shiber his deer head, and Bill Compton two heads, one with a nine-point rack. Ralph Welsh's deer head is from an albino.

Lanceford Sutton's deer head is displayed prominently. Two hoot owls are from Mrs. Edna McCarthy, three pheasants, a rooster and two hens, a grouse and a duck, from Ralph Welsh; a raven and opossum from Irvin LaBar, Mooretown.

Fred Clemow's old Pennsylvania rifles always attract attention flanked by their ancient powder horns. Background for the hunting scene is autumn leaves, and seasonal merchandise, bright hunting caps, shells, guns, is scattered everywhere, ready for November 2.

STATE POLICE SAY:

Individually and collectively, we must come to the realization that a nation with 52,000,000 motor vehicles is a nation faced with perils that demand the very highest competence in vehicle operation.

Mrs. Vernon Gets Word Of Arrival In Sumatra

Mrs. John Vernon, Center Hill Road, Dallas, received a cable on Monday that her daughter and family had landed in Palenbang, Sumatra, October 9. Mr. and Mrs. Byron Blank with their three children, Judy, Nancy, and seven-month old David, left for San Francisco August 25, boarding the President Wilson August 31. Landing in Singapore a few days ago, they made the rest of the journey to Sumatra by air.

A year's supply of canned milk and baby food for little David was among the supplies delivered two months ago in Sumatra, along with household goods and clothing for the entire family.

Mr and Mrs. Blank spent some months with the Vernons in Dallas while arrangements for the Sumatra trek were being made. Mrs. Vernon says the house feels like a tomb without that new baby. Mr. Blank is with Standard Oil Co.
