

Neighborhood News And Notes Of Personal Interest

Purely Personal

Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Eck and sons, Timothy and Peter, of State College, will spend the weekend in Shavertown visiting Mr. Eck's parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Eck of Shavertown.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Dungey, Huntsville Road, Dallas, had as recent guest their niece, Eugene Smith of Allentown. The Dungeys moved here from Forty Fort in September. James Krieger, Harveys Lake, celebrated his seventy fourth birthday anniversary with a family dinner October 28. Robert Harding of Kingston joined them.

Kenneth Griesmer has returned to his home on Pioneer Avenue after spending some time on a business trip to Bermuda.

Mrs. Godfrey Moore, Montclair, N. J., spent three days early this week with her daughter, Mrs. Marshall Nunlist, Trucksville. Driving up on Sunday, Mrs. Moore found roads in good condition until fifteen miles outside of Wilkes-Barre, where they became hazardous.

Mr. and Mrs. John Robinson, Jr., West Dallas, spent several days this week in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Fuller Dymond, Huntington, L. I., spent the weekend at East Dallas visiting the latter's mother, Mrs. Nettie Mikolajchik.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Traver Nobel, summer residents of Dallas R.D. 3, moved last week to their winter home, 72, Roosevelt Terrace, Wilkes-Barre.

Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Wheatcroft, former Goss Manor residents, have moved to Revonak Woods, Stamford, Conn.

Mrs. Joseph Schmerer, former Dallas resident, writes from Jacksonville, Fla., where she and her husband are living that they enjoy reading about their friends in the Post, and that while they like Jacksonville very much, they do get homesick for Dallas.

George Houck and his sister-in-law, Miss Eyre, Spring Street, Shavertown, have left to spend the winter at St. Petersburg, Fla. Their address is 831 Grove St.

Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Hessler, Rice Street, Trucksville, have left to spend the winter in St. Petersburg, Fla.

Mr. and Mrs. George Bittenbender and children have moved into their home at West Dallas. They stayed with the Andrew Bittenbenders at Huntsville while their home was being redecorated.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Precone celebrated their second wedding anniversary on Tuesday.

Loran Dymond, E. Center Street, Shavertown, has gone to Mt. Alto for medical treatment. Mrs. Dymond and the two children will live with Mr. Dymond's parents in Fernbrook during his absence.

Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Evans and son, Paul of Shavertown visited their son, Milton and family in Philadelphia over the weekend.

Mrs. Z. R. Howell and Mrs. Charles Norris, Shavertown, recently spent a day visiting old friends and relatives in Centerville and Vernon, Falls and Wyoming.

Marlan Frantz, E. Center Street, Shavertown, is convalescing at his home following an operation performed at Nesbitt Hospital.

Dr. and Mrs. George Flack, of Trucksville, left Friday to spend the next two weeks in Florida.

Mr. and Mrs. James Besecker, Norton Avenue, spent the weekend in Pittsburgh visiting the latter's cousin and husband, Mr. and Mrs. Ben Krotche. Mrs. Krotche returned with them to spend a week in Dallas.

Mrs. Bertha Jenkins returned to her home at Huntsville last Thursday after being a hospital patient for several weeks.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Culp and daughter, Cathy of Dover, N. J., are spending a two week vacation with Mr. Culp's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Culp of Huntsville.

Mrs. Celia Lape, mother of Mrs. Paul Warriner, has been ill at the home of Mr. and Mrs. George Schallenberger, Demunds Road. She is getting along nicely now.

Mrs. Donald Evans has been ill at her home on Church Street for the past week. She is steadily improving.

Mrs. Jacob Traver, Ruggles, will celebrate her birthday anniversary Friday, November 13.

Edwin Creasy has been confined to his home on Huntsville Road with a broken foot.

Polly Lou Cooper, Towson, Md., and her fiancé, Cpl. Jay Vanden Hout, Fort Meade, spent the weekend visiting the former's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cooper, Wyoming Avenue, Dallas.

Mrs. Walter Risley, Lehman Avenue, has returned home after a week's stay in Nicholson with Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Boston.

Mr. and Mrs. George Weintz, Meeker, and Mrs. Florence Post, New Milford, spent several days recently at Schneectady, N. Y., visiting Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Mackert.

Twenty-First Birthday

Pvt. Clayton L. Traver, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas J. Traver of Ruggles is celebrating his twenty first birthday anniversary in Germany today. He is with the 322 Tank Bn. 120 M. M. Gun Division.

Pvt. Traver is a graduate of Lake-Noxen High School. He took his basic training at Fort Knox, after which he was sent to Camp Kilmer and on to Germany.

Shavertown Pupils Pledge Allegiance

Monday, Flag Allegiance Day of American Education Week, saw Shavertown elementary pupils assembled on the steps and in the corridor to salute the flag. Eight Girl Scouts, Flora Anderson, Joyce Fiske, Lois Burnaford, Penelope Rose, Roberta Oldershaw, Charlene Mannear, Doris Whipp, and Evelyn Frantz, held the flag.

James H. Goodwin, principal, led the Pledge of Allegiance, and Mrs. Martin Porter led in singing the Star Spangled Banner.

James Hopple, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Morgan is able to be back in school after being a patient at Mercy Hospital where he submitted to a tonsil operation.

Mr. and Mrs. Wesley Himmler, Lake Street, left Thursday for their winter home at Hollywood-by-the-Sea, Fla. They were accompanied by their grandchildren, James and Joyce Oliver who will be their guests for a few weeks. Before leaving they were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Werner, Pioneer Avenue, Shavertown, entertained at a party by Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dungey, Wednesday evening dinner guests of Mrs. Marian Harter and entertained at a family dinner by Mr. and Mrs. Alvah Eggleston, Vernon.

Mrs. James Huston has been ill at her home at Harveys Lake this week.

Mrs. Richard Simonton and son, Bobby, Harrisburg, spent the weekend visiting the former's mother and grandmother, Mrs. Florence Phillips and Mrs. F. M. Gordon. They took Ricky, who has been spending the past two weeks in Dallas, home with them on Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Albert Patton, Noxen, R. D., have announced the birth of a baby girl at General Hospital November 8.

Nancy Brader, member of the Senior Class at Cedar Crest College, spent the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Norwood Brader, Machell Avenue. She came home to celebrate her twenty first birthday anniversary.

Mrs. Roscoe Lee, Terrace Street, Dallas, is still a patient at General Hospital where she submitted to an operation some weeks ago.

Mrs. H. H. Zeiser, Huntsville Road will entertain over the weekend her son, Bruce R. Zeiser, Providence, R. I., and her grandson and granddaughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Bruce H. Zeiser and children of Arlington, Virginia.

Lee Morris, student at Syracuse University, spent the weekend with his father, Leroy Morris at Kunkle.

Clinton Ide, Huntsville, spent last weekend in New York State on a hunting trip.

Fred Kiefer, former Shrineville resident, has returned to his home in New York City after spending several days at Hotel Sterling. While in Wilkes-Barre, he entertained a number of Ida Mae's Seminary friends at a party at the Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Eck and Mr. and Mrs. John Eck, Shavertown, entertained over the weekend Attorney Dorothy Eck Caton and her husband, Atty. Floyd Caton and sons, John and Floyd of Washington, D. C. They came home to help the senior Mrs. Eck celebrate her birthday anniversary.

Kenneth Williams who is employed at Port Allegheny, Pa., spent the weekend with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Williams at Ruggles.

Albert Parrish, Parrish Street, has moved in with his daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Titus, Huntsville Road. Last Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Titus and Doris and Sharon and Mr. Parrish spent the day at Rohrsburg visiting Mr. and Mrs. Owen Young.

Mrs. Clifford Fink, Leigh Street, Shavertown, is a patient at Memorial Hospital, 66th Street, New York City. Yesterday her daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Henning Jr., Mrs. Stanley Henning, Sr., and Mrs. Kenneth Huey drove down to see her.

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Weaver, Franklin Street, spent the weekend in New York City.

Mr. and Mrs. Richard Phillips, Wilmington, Del., spent the weekend visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Griesing, Franklin Street, and Mrs. Florence Phillips, Norton Avenue.

Mrs. D. P. Honeywell, Church Street, Dallas, and Mrs. F. M. Gordon, Norton Avenue, were luncheon guests of Mrs. Marvin Elston at the home of her daughter, Mrs. Myrtle Hess, Kunkle, last Thursday.

Mrs. Henry Peterson entertained members of her bridge club at her home on Norton Avenue Monday evening.

Polly Lou Cooper To Marry Jay Vandenhout November 11

Polly Lou Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cooper, Wyoming Street, Dallas, will become the bride of Cpl. Jay Vandenhout, son of Mr. and Mrs. Howard Vandenhout, Grand Rapids, Mich., Saturday November 21 at 3 p. m. Rev. William H. Heappys will perform the double ring ceremony in Dallas Methodist Church at 3 p. m.

Attendants will be Priscilla Cooper, sister of the bride, and Dale Kik, cousin of the bridegroom of Grand Rapids. Ushers will be Harry Gross of Dallas and Stephen Monka, Washington, D. C.

Following the ceremony, a reception will be held at the Castle Inn and the couple will leave on a trip. Polly Lou is a graduate of Dallas Borough High School and Misericordia College. For the past year and a half she has been teaching in Towson, Md. Cpl. Vandenhout is stationed at Fort Meade with the U. S. Army. He will receive his honorable discharge in April after which the couple will make their home at Grand Rapids.

Mary Patricia Wilson To Wed Robert Harris On Christmas

Ernest Wilson, East Dallas, announces the engagement of his daughter, Mary Patricia, to Robert Ralph Harris, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Harris of Claude Street, Dallas.

The wedding will take place at the home of the bridegroom Christmas night at 8 p. m.

Miss Wilson is a graduate of Dallas Township High School, class of 1952, and is employed by Bloomsburg Mill. Mr. Wilson was also graduated from Dallas Township High School, class of 1952, and is employed by the Pennsylvania Quarry Construction Company of Williamsport.

Alice Ide Is Hostess On Sixteenth Birthday

Alice Ide, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis V. Ide, Lehman, was hostess to eight of her classmates at a dinner party last night. She was sixteen. After the dinner the girls attended the Sadie Hawkins dance in Lehman High School.

Alice is a member of the Junior Class in the Lehman - Jackson-Ross Joint School.

Present at the dinner were: Joanne Casterline, Nancy Williams, Marcia Elston, Janet Cornell, Grace Major, Kathryn Kidd, Betty Katchmar, Eleanor Ide and Alice.

Alice Race, Honored At Birthday Party

Mrs. Alice Race, Harveys Lake, was guest of honor at a birthday party given by a number of her neighbors Friday evening. Present were Mrs. Jenny Davis, Mrs. Carrie Root, Mrs. Marion Root, Mrs. Winifred Baird, Mrs. Muriel Pennington, Mrs. Roy Tyson, Mrs. Herman Hier, Mrs. Daisy Scot, Mrs. Lelia Mayer, Pauline Davis and the guest of honor.

Mrs. Corey Meade Is Hostess At Luncheon

Mrs. Corey Meade, Idetown, entertained a number of friends at a luncheon and quilting party last Wednesday. Present were Mrs. Francis Smith, Mrs. Daniel Brown, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Frank Mathers, Mrs. Daniel Brown, Mrs. Walter Smith, Mrs. Elmer Hoover, Mrs. Ernest Fritz, Mrs. Emory Hadsel, Mrs. Walter Meade, Donnie Meade and the hostess.

Robert Baker Completes Course At Valley Forge

Robert T. Baker, son of Dr. and Mrs. Theodore Baker of Rice Street, Trucksville, has successfully completed his Plebe Training at Valley Forge Military Academy, Wayne, Pennsylvania, where he is enrolled as a Fifth Classman, and is now fully recognized as a member of the Corps of Cadets, it was announced today by Colonel Milton H. Medenbach, Commandant of Cadets.

This recognition was granted after Cadet Baker completed an intensive basic training course of eight weeks. Cadet Baker, along with several of his classmates was congratulated by Major General Milton G. Baker, Superintendent of Valley Forge Military Academy, for his zeal and industry in attaining this recognition.

Johnson Family Comes Home From Waco, Texas

W. Dean Johnson, with his wife, the former Dorothy Ruth Houser and seven months son Dean Jr., is home from Waco Texas. The couple drove by way of Chicago, starting from Waco on Saturday and arriving in Shavertown Thursday evening, after being held up by a near-blizzard at Wyalusing. They will make their home for the present with Mrs. Johnson's mother, Mrs. Ruth Houser.

Dean was with the Army Air Force three years and four months in the Radar department.

Lead Discussion

Mr. and Mrs. Odis Moore led the Great Books discussion at Osterhout Library on Wednesday night. The discussion is open to the public every other Wednesday and is usually led by Gilbert and Rosa Dew Shappert. There is no admission.

Ann Ide To Become Bride Of Alfred Laincz This Month

Mr. and Mrs. Robert B. Ide, Huntsville Idetown Road, announce the approaching marriage of their daughter, Ann, to Alfred E. Laincz, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Laincz, 39, Downey Drive, Hatboro, Pa.

Rev. J. J. O'Leary will perform the ceremony and celebrate the nuptial mass in St. Therese's Church Shavertown, Thursday, November 26 at 9:30 a. m. Following the ceremony a breakfast will be held at the home of the bride.

The bride elect is a graduate of Lehman High School and attended East Stroudsburg State Teachers College. She is employed by Wyoming Valley Girl Scout Council Mr. Laincz attended Lehman High School and served with the 99th Infantry Division, European Theatre, during World War II. He is employed by the Budd Corporation in Hatboro.

The couple will reside in Hatboro.

Bi-County League Has Annual Dinner

Little Bill Phillips, popular WBAX radio announcer, was the principal speaker last night at the annual dinner of Bi-County Base Ball League held at Herman Kern's Restaurant, Harveys Lake.

Herman Kern was toastmaster. George Shupp, League president and George Gay presented the trophies to Dallas Legionnaires for winning the pennant and the play-offs.

About sixty couples attended. Shorty Martin's orchestra furnished music for round and square dancing.

Value Shop Needs Large Size Dresses

The Value Shop, in new and larger quarters provided by Commonwealth Telephone Company in the former exchange building, Church Street, is asking for garments for the larger woman. All clothing must be cleaned before submitting. The original owner gets two thirds of the purchase price, the club one third for handling. Receipts go to the civic work undertaken by Dallas Womens Club.

More workers are needed. Volunteer workers man the shop in shifts every Friday, 10-11, 1-4, 4-6, and 7-9.

Educator To Speak

Dr. Eugene Hammer, professor of Education at Wilkes College will speak on the "Aspects of a Good Education" Monday night at the meeting of Shavertown Parent-Teacher Association.

Pancake Supper

The Men's Club of the Trucksville Methodist Church are having a sausage and pancake supper at the church on Thursday November 19. Everyone invited. Serving starts at 5:30 p. m.

Card Of Thanks

The family of the late Ralph E. Major wishes to thank all those who assisted in any way during their recent bereavement, those who sent flowers and cards, and especially those who called at hospital and home and cheered Mr. Major with cards and remembrances during his illness.

Besecker, Daniel Richards, Nort Berti, James Pardini, Steve Yalick, Gus Condoras, Algert Antanaitis, John Stenger, Jr., Willard L. Garey, Richard Staub, Karl Loucks, J. P. DeWitt, L. L. Richardson, A. M. Beveridge, Alfred Bronson, James F. Culp, Fred Smith, T. M. B. Hicks; and Misses Mildred Devans, Patricia Reynolds, Marietta C. Babcock.

Initiated Into Tri-Delt

Janice Lamb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Orman Lamb, Machell Avenue, has been initiated into Delta Delta Delta at Syracuse University.

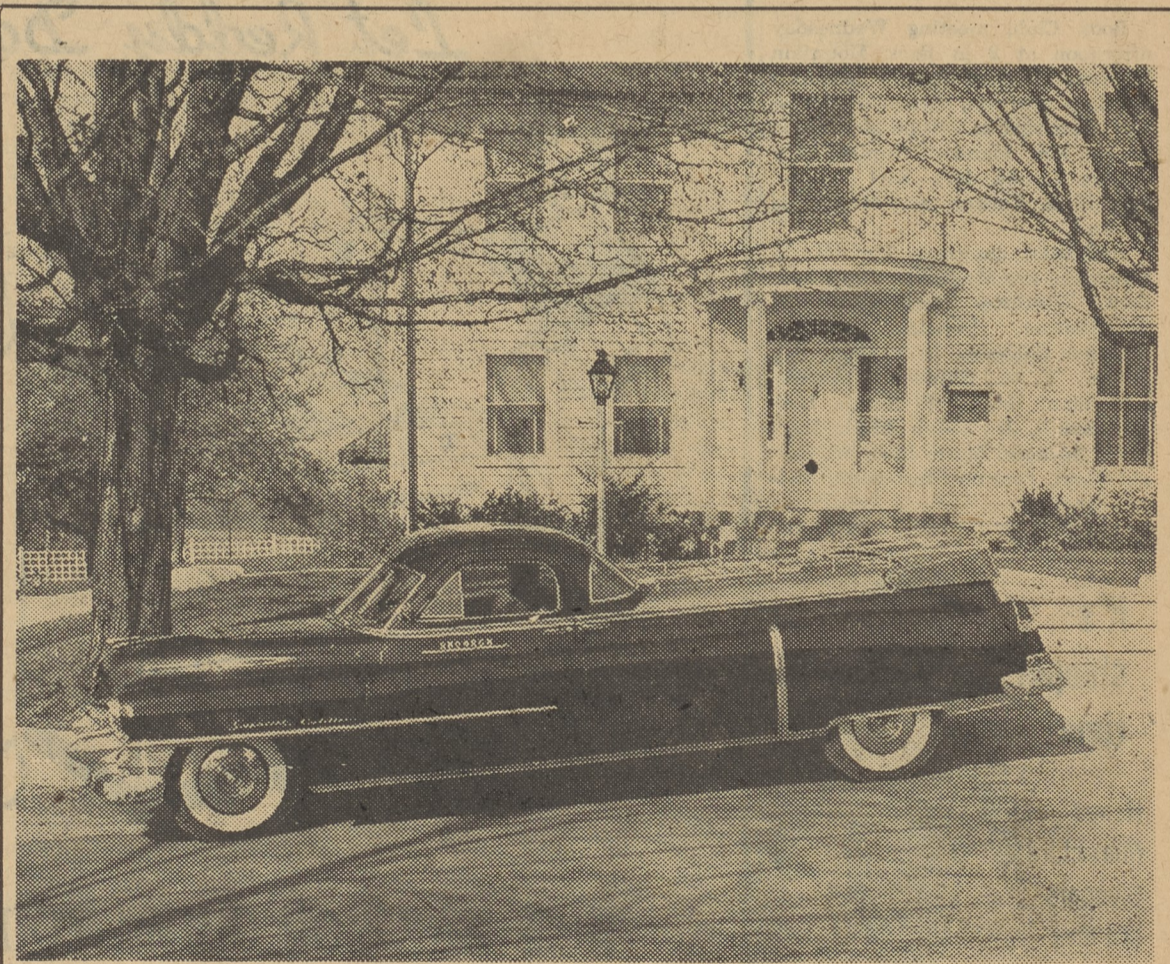

HOLIDAYS BRIDES WELCOMED

New Bridal Gowns Truly "Exquisite"

Mr. Louis Hess, owner of the Zimmerman Bridal Salon, 51 Public Square, Wilkes-Barre, who recently returned from New York with hundreds of new 1954 bridal gowns, says that in his years of experience he has never seen such "exquisite" gowns for the bride.

Mr. Hess cordially invites "holiday" brides—those girls who are planning Thanksgiving-time and Christmas-time weddings—to get in touch with him at once. His stock is complete—the Bridal Salon has been beautifully re-decorated since the fire—and he is ready to serve the bride-to-be, her attendants... and the mothers of both the bride and the groom.

Zimmerman's, the home of the finest and largest collection of wedding finery in Northeastern Pennsylvania, has earned a reputation for prompt, courteous and completely personal service to the bride over their past 27 years of bridal service.

The addition of this new Superior Cadillac Flower Car to our self-owned fleet is in keeping with our policy of . . .

"The Finest Always"

MILDRED A. and ALFRED D.

BRONSON

FUNERAL SERVICE

"As Near As Your Telephone"

Incomparable

Flower T. Williams
FUNERAL HOME
Dallas 4-4101

AMBULANCE SERVICE

PHONE DALLAS 7-2244